Globalization, Employment and Income Distribution in Developing Countries

Edited by Eddy Lee and Marco Vivarelli

Palgrave Macmillan

Contents

List of Figures
Page vii

List of Tables
Page ix

Notes on the Contributors
Page xiii

Preface
Page xvii

1 Introduction
Eddy Lee and Marco Vivarelli
1.1 Background
1.2 Literature review
1.3 The country studies
1.4 Policy issues
Page 1

2 Morocco
Lahcen Achy and Khalid Sekkat
2.1 Introduction
2.2 The country at a glance
2.3 Trade and employment
2.4 FDI and employment
2.5 Trade and wages
2.6 Conclusion
Page 24

3 Ghana
Ernest Aryeetey
3.1 Introduction
3.2 An overview of the economy
3.3 Trade, FDI and employment
3.4 Trade, FDI, poverty and income distribution
3.5 Case study of FDI and poverty in the mining sector
3.6 Summary and conclusions
Page 62

4 Vietnam
Phan Thanh Ha, Phan Lan Huong and Nguyen Thi Kim Dzung
4.1 Introduction
4.2 Macroeconomic background
4.3 Employment trends
4.4 Trade and employment
4.5 Poverty trends and changes in income inequality
4.6 Trade, poverty alleviation and income disparities
4.7 The role of overseas Vietnamese
4.8 Conclusions
Page 105
5 Kazakhstan 154

Kairat Mynbaev, Sabit Khakimzhanov, Sharon Eicher and Aidan Islyami

5.1 Kazakhstan at a glance 154
5.2 Transition and reform 156
5.3 Macroeconomic overview 158
5.4 Trade and FDI 167
5.5 Employment 174
5.6 Income distribution and poverty 180
5.7 Openness and employment 186
5.8 Openness, income distribution and poverty 197
5.9 Conclusions 203

6 Nepal 210

P.P. Timilsina, M.D. Bhattarai, and R.C. Bhattarai

6.1 Introduction 210
6.2 Macroeconomic trends 210
6.3 Trade and foreign direct investment 219
6.4 Trade, FDI and their impacts on employment 229
6.5 Trade, FDI and their impacts on income distribution and poverty 237
6.6 Conclusions 243

Index 248