CONTENTS

Abbreviations vii

Preface ix

RONALD A. BOSCO AND JOEL MYERSON

Acknowledgments xix

The Construction of Emerson

Holmes, Cabot, and Edward Emerson and the Challenges of Writing Emerson's Biography in the 1880s 3

ROBERT D. HABICH

Saving Emerson for Posterity 33

LAWRENCE BUELL

Emerson's Audience

Emerson and His Audiences: The New England Lectures, 1843–1844 51

NANCY CRAIG SIMMONS

Chladni Patterns, Lyceum Halls, and Skillful Experimenters: Emerson's New Metaphysics for the Listening Reader 86

SARAH ANN WIDER

Emerson the Reformer

The New Movement's Tide: Emerson and Women's Rights 117

PHYLLIS COLE

Emerson, Garrison, and the Anti-Slavery Society 153

T. GREGORY GARVEY

The Legacy of Reform: Emersonian Idealism, Moorfield Storey, and the Civil Rights Movement 183

LEN GOUJEON
Contents

Emerson the Poet

Poverty and Power: Revisiting Emerson's Poetics 213
JOSEPH M. THOMAS

(Re)Visiting "The Adirondacs": Emerson's Confrontation with Wild Nature 247
ROBERT E. BURKHOLDER

Emerson and the World of Ideas

Emerson, Columbus, and the Geography of Self-Reliance: 273
The Example of the Sermons
SUSAN L. ROBERSON

Emerson and Gnosticism 289
ALBERT J. VON FRANK

Emerson on Language as Action 315
GUSTAAF VAN CROMPHOUT

"If Body Can Sing": Emerson and Victorian Science 334
LAURA DASSOW WALLS

"The Power of Recurring to the Sublime at Pleasure": 367
Emerson and Feeling
WESLEY T. MOTT

Experience, Instinct, and Emerson's Philosophical Reorientation 391
DAVID M. ROBINSON

Later Emerson: "Intellect" and The Conduct of Life 405
ROBERT N. HUDSPETH

History and Form in Emerson's "Fate" 432
BARBARA PACKER

Contributors 453

Index 459