TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements 7

Introduction

SASCHA BRU 9
The Phantom League.
The Centennial Debate on the Avant-Garde and Politics

The Politics of Community

KIRSTEN STROM 35
"Sometimes I Spit for Pleasure on My Mother's Portrait".
On the Strategic Uses of Inflammatory Rhetoric in Surrealism

GUNTHER MARTENS 49
Framing Literary Speech Acts of Political Modernity.
Notes on Hermann Broch, Karl Kraus and Expressionism

LAURA WINKIEL 65
The Rhetoric of Violence.
Avant-Garde Manifestoes and the Myth of Racial Community

STEVEN ENGELS 91
Uncanny Polemics and Ambivalent Reappraisals.
The French Debate on Surrealism on the Eve of the Cold War

Citizens/Subjects

MALYNNE STERNSTEIN 113
Ecstatic Subjects.
Citizenship and Sex in Czech Surrealism
HUBERT F. VAN DEN BERG 133
From a New Art to a New Life and a New Man. Avant-Garde Utopianism in dada

Parties/Groups

GÜNTER BERGHAUS 153
The Futurist Political Party

RAYMOND SPITERI 183
Surrealism and the Political. The Case of Nadja

Nations/States

THOMAS HUNKELER 203
Cultural Hegemony and Avant-Garde Rivalry. The Ambivalent Reception of Futurism in France, England and Russia

RENÉE M. SILVERMAN 217
A Europeanizing Geography. The First Spanish Avant-Garde's Remapping of Castile (1914-1925)

BENEDIKT HJARTARSON 235
Dragging Nordic Horses past the Sludge of Extremes. The Beginnings of the Icelandic Avant-Garde

Illustrations 265

Abstracts 275

Index 285