Contents

JOHN FLOWERDEW / MAURIZIO GOTTI
Introduction ................................................................. 7

Academic and Scientific Discourse

INMACULADA ÁLVAREZ DE MON Y REGO
A Contrastive Study of Encapsulation and Prospection in Written
Scientific Text ............................................................. 21

INMACULADA FORTANET / JUAN CARLOS PALMER / MIGUEL RUIZ
Academically Speaking: The Use of -ly Adverbials by British and American Lecturers......................................................... 41

IRENA VASSILEVA
Metamorphosis: Conference Abstract, Conference Presentation,
Published Paper.......................................................... 61

Business and Economic Discourse

GIULIANA GARZONE
The Use of Discursive Features Expressing Causal Relations in Annual Company Reports............................................. 81

SUSAN KERMAS
Metaphor and Ideology in Business and Economic Discourse in British and American English ........................................ 109
Gina Poncini
Specialized Discourse about Mergers and Acquisitions: Exploring a Cross-border Deal

Editorial and Institutional Discourse

Cinzia Bevitori
Speech Representation in Parliamentary Discourse. Rhetorical Strategies in a Heteroglossic Perspective: A Corpus-based Study

LouAnn Haarmann
The Construction of Stance in BBC Television Coverage of the Iraqi War

Legal Discourse

Stefania Biscetti
Tag Questions in Courtroom Discourse

Ross Charnock
Forms and Functions of Ambiguity in English Common Law Adjudication

Charlotte Taylor
Witness Strategies in the Hutton Inquiry

Notes on Contributors