

NINETEENTH-CENTURY ENGLISH
LABOURING-CLASS POETS
1800–1900

VOLUME II
1830–1860

Edited by
Kaye Kossick

LONDON
PICKERING & CHATTO
2006

CONTENTS OF VOLUME II

|   |       |
|---|-------|
| Acknowledgements  | xiii  |
| Introduction  | xv    |
| Chronology  | xxxii |
| Note on the Text  | xxxv  |
|   |       |
| HENRY BROWN ( fl. 1830–35)   | 1     |
| From The Mechanic's Saturday Night (1830)  | 2     |
| From Sunday: A Poem, in Three Cantos (1835)  | 5     |
|   |       |
| MARY MARIA COLLING (1805–53)  | 11    |
| From Fables and other Pieces in Verse (1831)   | 12    |
| To Robert Southey, Esq. Poet Laureate, &c. &c. On beingtold by Mrs. Bray, that he had most kindly noticed me andmy little verses  | 12    |
| The Moon and the Cloud  | 13    |
| The Eagle and the Toad  | 14    |
| The Birth of Envy   | 14    |
|   |       |
| JOHN JONES (b. 1774)  | 17    |
| From Attempts in Verse by John Jones, an old Servant (1831)  | 18    |
| Lines, occasioned by reading the following printed bill, fixedin the beak of one in a group of five stuffed owls in theshop window of a bird stuffer, at Richmond, Yorkshire. | 18    |
| My Nose   | 20    |
| The Children's Dirge at the Interment of a Gold Fish  | 21    |
| On the Death of Gaffer Gun  | 22    |
|   |       |
| MARY HUTTON ( fl. 1831–42)   | 25    |
| From Sheffield Manor, and other Poems (1831)   | 27    |
| The Prospect from Sheffield Manor Hill  | 27    |

|   |    |
|---|----|
| From The Happy Isle, and other Poems (1836)  | 32 |
| On the Poor Laws' Amendment Bill  | 32 |
| From Cottage Tales and Poems by Mary Hutton (1842)   | 34 |
| On Reading the Distressing Account of John Clare's Aberrationof Mind                                  | 34 |
| On Reading a Letter in Frazer's Magazine, for Sept. 1836; Saidto be from the Ettrick Shepherd         | 36 |
| Madame Lavalette  | 38 |
| RICHARD FURNESS (1791–1857)   | 43 |
| From The Rag-Bag, a Satire in Three Cantos (1832)  | 45 |
| From The Poetical Works of Richard Furness (1858)  | 51 |
| The Village Boy   | 51 |
| To the Memory of Ebenezer Elliott, The Corn-Law Rhymer  | 53 |
| THOMAS LISTER (fl. 1834)  | 55 |
| From The Rustic Wreath (1834)  | 56 |
| The Yorkshire Hirings   | 56 |
| Wreck of the Rothsay-Castle   | 66 |
| The Home-expelled Britons   | 68 |
| JOHN YOUNGER (1785–1860)  | 75 |
| From Thoughts as they Rise (1834)  | 77 |
| From The Autobiography of John Younger, Shoemaker (1881)   | 80 |
| There's a Poetry in Nature  | 80 |
| Solitary Reflections  | 80 |
| How Sweet were my Hours of Childhood's Day  | 81 |
| EVAN MacCOLL (1808–98)  | 83 |
| From The Mountain Minstrel (1836)  | 84 |
| A May Morning in Glenshira  | 84 |
| Stanzas, on viewing 'the Rejoicings', in a Highland Glen,occasioned by the passing of the Reform Bill | 86 |
| On the Abolition of Slavery in the British West India Colonies  | 87 |
| Definition of a Poet  | 87 |
| THOMAS MILLER (1807–74)   | 89 |
| From A Day in the Woods (1836)   | 91 |
| The Old English Wood  | 91 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| From Poems (1841)   | 95  |
| Sonnet (To a Lady with a Basket)   | 95  |
| Summer Morning   | 95  |
| Song of the Outlaws  | 104 |
| JOHN CRITCHLEY PRINCE (1808–66)  | 107 |
| From The Fleet Papers (1841)  | 109 |
| The Death of the Factory Child   | 109 |
| From The Poetical Works of John Critchley Prince (1880)   | 113 |
| Lyrics for the People, No. III, 'There is Beauty on Earth'   | 113 |
| An Appeal on Behalf of the Uneducated  | 114 |
| Lines, respectfully inscribed to the virtuous and patriotic Wivesand Mothers of England  | 120 |
| Anti-Corn-Law Lyric  | 120 |
| From Autumn Leaves: Original Poems, etc. (1856).  | 121 |
| A Thought on War   | 121 |
| SAMUEL BAMFORD (1788–1872)   | 123 |
| From Passages in the Life of a Radical (1844)   | 125 |
| From Poems (1843)   | 127 |
| The Day Storm of Thunder   | 127 |
| God help the Poor  | 128 |
| The Labourer's Orison at Sun-Rise, written with especialreference to the Corn Laws, and the general condition ofthe working classes at that time | 130 |
| The Wild Rider, A Legendary Tale   | 131 |
| From Homely Rhymes, Poems, and Reminiscences (1864)   |     |
| The Landowner  | 136 |
| WILLIAM THOM (1799–1848)   | 139 |
| From Rhymes and Recollections of a Hand-Loom Weaver (1844)  | 141 |
| From [To the Reader]   | 141 |
| From [Recollections]   | 142 |
| From the Northern Star (1842)   | 145 |
| A Chieftain Unknown to the Queen!  | 145 |
| From Rhymes and Recollections of a Hand-Loom Weaver (1844)  | 146 |
| The Drunkard's Dream   | 146 |
| They Speak o' Wyles  | 148 |
| Whisper Low  | 148 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Jeanie's Grave  | 149 |
| Whisperings for the Unwashed  | 150 |
| GEORGE RICHARDSON ( fl. 1844)  | 153 |
| From Patriotism: In Three Cantos, and other Poems (1844)   | 154 |
| From Patriotism  | 154 |
| Valedictory Stanzas   | 169 |
| ROBERT PEDDIE ( fl. 1844)  | 171 |
| From The Dungeon Harp (1844)   | 174 |
| From [Introduction]  | 174 |
| Verses Written in Prison  | 176 |
| The Poor Man's Prayer   | 179 |
| The Covenanter's Song   | 182 |
| The Imprisoned Chartist to his Wife   | 183 |
| Langsyne  | 186 |
| THOMAS COOPER (1805–92)   | 189 |
| From The Life of Thomas Cooper, Written by Himself (1872)  | 192 |
| From The Purgatory of Suicides (1845)  | 193 |
| WILLIAM HEATON (1801–71)  | 205 |
| From The Flowers of Calder Dale (1847)   | 207 |
| Stanzas, on an Ash Tree in Ovenden Wood, near Halifax, onwhich the Author had cut the Initials of his Name eighteenyears before.                          | 207 |
| The Cry of Neglected Genius   | 208 |
| Grace Darling   | 209 |
| Stanzas on gathering two Daisies after a severe Snow Stormearly in January  | 210 |
| From The Old Soldier; The Wandering Lover; and other Poems (1857)  | 212 |
| Lines, on the Holmfirth Flood, which took place on ThursdayMorning, Feb. 5th 1852; by which dreadful calamity nearlyone hundred persons lost their lives. | 212 |
| The Song of the Hand-Loom Weaver  | 213 |
| Wild Flowers  | 215 |
| What is Fame?   | 217 |
| The Author's Conclusion   | 218 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| MARY PYPER (1795–1870)                                      | 221 |
| From Select Pieces by Mary Pyper (1847)              | 223 |
| Apology of the Authoress for her Muse                       | 223 |
| On Asking a Lady to Subscribe                               | 224 |
| To the Moon   | 224 |
| From Sacred Poems (1865)                             | 224 |
| A Harvest Hymn  | 224 |
| On the Death of an Infant                                   | 226 |
| Here To-Day, and Gone To-Morrow                             | 226 |
| Evening   | 227 |
| Epitaph—A Life  | 228 |
|   |     |
| 'MARIE' ( fl. 1846–52)                               | 229 |
| From The People's Journal (1847)                     | 231 |
| Fellow Workers  | 231 |
| Heroisms  | 232 |
| From The People's Journal (1848)                     | 234 |
| Crucified Spirits   | 234 |
| From The People's Journal (1849)                     | 236 |
| Poet! Why Sing?   | 236 |
| From The People's and Howitt's Journal (1850)        | 237 |
| Labour  | 237 |
| Sibyl, The Far-Seer   | 239 |
| From Eliza Cook's Journal (1851)                     | 241 |
| Posted Books  | 241 |
| From The Working Man's Friend (1852)                 | 243 |
| Trees of Liberty  | 243 |
|   |     |
| JANET HAMILTON (1795–1873)                                  | 245 |
| From Poems, Essays, and Sketches (1880)              | 248 |
| From The Uses and Pleasures of Poetry to the Working | 249 |
| Classes (1850)  | 249 |
| From Local Changes (1870)                            | 249 |
| Luggie, Past and Present                                    | 250 |
| Oor Location  | 252 |
| A Lay of the Tambour Frame                                  | 254 |
| A Plea for the Doric  | 255 |
| The Demon Drink!  | 257 |
| Spring Scene in the Country                                 | 258 |
| Night Scene at the Fall of Sebastopol                       | 259 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Medley of Thoughts and Feelings on the Italian Crisis                       | 260 |
| The Sunday Rail—1.  | 261 |
| Effie—A Ballad  | 262 |
| GERALD MASSEY (1828–1907)   | 267 |
| From The Ballad of Babe Christabel with other Lyrical Poems (1855)   | 269 |
| Preface   | 269 |
| Bridal Song   | 273 |
| Kisses  | 274 |
| Love-in-Idleness  | 275 |
| The Chivalry of Labour  | 276 |
| They are but Giants while we Kneel  | 277 |
| Song of the Red Republican  | 278 |
| Eighteen Hundred and Forty-Eight  | 279 |
| All's Right with the World  | 282 |
| The Awakening of the People   | 283 |
| The Fleet before Sebastopol   | 284 |
| From War Waits (1855)  | 286 |
| The Battle March  | 286 |
| Liberty's Bridal Wreath   | 287 |
| EDWARD CAPERN (1819–94)   | 289 |
| From Poems by Edward Capern, Rural Postman of Bideford, Devon (1859) | 290 |
| Art thou a Poet?  | 290 |
| The Rural Postman   | 292 |
| The Lion-Flag of England  | 295 |
| The Author's Apology to his Friends   | 298 |
| My Thoughts   | 299 |
| JAMES MACFARLAN (1832–62)   | 301 |
| From Poetical Works (1882)   | 302 |
| The Wanderer of the West  | 302 |
| Northern Lights   | 307 |
| The Lords of Labour   | 308 |
| The Midnight Train  | 310 |
| The Street  | 311 |
| The Ruined City   | 312 |
| A November Night Piece  | 314 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| EDWIN WAUGH (1817–90)                                    | 315 |
| From Poems and Lancashire Songs (1859)            | 318 |
| Come Whoam to thy Childer an' Me                         | 318 |
| All on a Rosy Morn of June                               | 319 |
| The World  | 321 |
| From Poems, and Lancashire Songs (1876)           | 323 |
| Eawr Folk  | 323 |
| From Poems and Songs (1889)                       | 325 |
| Down Again!  | 325 |
| Dinner Time  | 327 |
|    |     |
| BEN BRIERLEY (1825–96)                                   | 331 |
| Go tak' the ragged Childer an' flit                      | 331 |
|    |     |
| ISRAEL HOLDSWORTH (b. 1816)                              | 335 |
| From The Literary Pic-Nic, and Other Poems (1872) | 336 |
| As Poor as a Poet  | 336 |
| Competition  | 337 |
| Co-operation   | 338 |
| The Mysteries of Fate                                    | 339 |
| Chatterton   | 341 |
| War—A Political Song                                     | 346 |
| The Mother, on Viewing her Deceased Child's Photograph   | 347 |
| Men's Compositions—A Fragment                            | 347 |
|    |     |
| Notes  | 349 |
| Thematic Index   | 431 |
| Index of First Lines                                     | 439 |
| Index of Titles  | 443 |