

Victorian Literary Mesmerism

Edited by
Martin Willis and Catherine Wynne

Amsterdam-New York, NY 2006

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction Martin Willis and Catherine Wynne	1
1 Mind Reading: Literature in the Discourse of Early Victorian Phrenology and Mesmerism Ilana Kurshan	17
2 Mesmerism and Medicine in Bulwer-Lytton's Novels of the Occult Gavin Budge	39
3 Mesmerism and the Electric Age: From Poe to Edison Anthony Enns	61
4 Mesmeric Delusions: Mind and Mental Training in Elizabeth Gaskell's Writings Louise Henson	83
5 Mesmerism, Clairvoyance and Literary Culture in Mid-Century Australia Tiffany Donnelly	105
6 Jim Crows, Veiled Ladies and True Womanhood: Mesmerism in The House of the Seven Gables Angelic Rodgers	127
7 George Eliot's The Lifted Veil and the Cultural Politics of Clairvoyance Martin Willis	145

8	Dazed and Abused: Gender and Mesmerism in Wilkie Collins Sharrona Pearl	163
9	Marie Corelli's Magnetic Revitalizing Power Alisha Siebers	183
10	Under the Influence: Crime and Hypnotic Fictions of the Fin de Siècle Mary Elizabeth Leighton	203
11	Arthur Conan Doyle's Domestic Desires: Mesmerism, Mediumship and Femmes Fatales Catherine Wynne	227
	Notes on Contributors	245
	Bibliography	249
	Index	267