

Considering Alan Ball

*Essays on Sexuality,
Death and America in the Television and Film Writings*

EDITED BY THOMAS FAHY

McFarland & Company, Inc., Publishers
Jefferson, North Carolina, and London

Contents

Sexuality, Death, and the American Dream in the Works of Alan Ball: An Introduction	1
Thomas Fahy
An Interview with Alan Ball	17
Thomas Fahy
Good Mourning, America: Alan Ball's American Beauty	23
Ann C. Hall
The Space Between Us: The Psychology of Houses in American Beauty	33
Susanna Lee
A Heart Caves In: The Dangerous Aesthetics of American Beauty	45
Susann Cokal
"You Have to Develop an Eye For It": Anti-Aesthetic Art in Alan Ball's Vision	70
Kirstin Ringelberg
Meet the Chenowiths: The Therapeutic Drama of Six Feet Under	86
Robert F. Gross
Strangers in Blood: The Queer Intimacies of Six Feet Under ...	107
Lorena Russell

Contents

When We Living Awaken	124
Craig N. Owens
Bridesmaids, Bosoms, and Booze: Visibility and the Veiling of Conservatism	139
Johanna Frank
Always a Bridesmaid, Never a Bride: The American Dream in Five Women Wearing the Same Dress	157
Mardia Bishop
Appendix: Works for Theater, Film and Television	173
About the Contributors	179
Index	181