QUEER PEOPLE

Negotiations and Expressions of Homosexuality, 1700–1800

Edited by Chris Mounsey and Caroline Gonda

Lewisburg
Bucknell University Press
Contents

Queer People: An Introduction
   CAROLINE GONDA AND CHRIS MOUNSEY 9

Homosexual Context and Identity: Reflections on the Reception of Handel as Orpheus
   ELLEN T. HARRIS 41

Part 1: Social Constructionism

Queerness, Class, and Sexuality
   SALLY O’DRISCOLL 69

Sex and Shopping with Frances Burney
   CONRAD BRUNSTRÖM 86

People, Place and Performance: Theoretically Revisiting
   Mother Clap’s Molly House
   TANYA CASSIDY 99

How (Not) to Queer Boswell
   THOMAS A. KING 114

Cruising Crusoe: Diving into the Wreck of Sexuality
   JOSEPH CAMPANA 159

Part 2: Essentialist Historicism

London’s Homosexuals in the Eighteenth Century: Rhetoric versus Practice
   NETTA GOLDSMITH 183

Dark Deeds at Night
   RUTH HERMAN 195

Queer Labor: Genius and Class in Eighteenth-Century Pastoral
   BRIDGET KEEGAN 210

Love between Men in Jennens’ and Handel’s Saul
   RUTH SMITH 226

Conversion Panic, Circumcision, and Sexual Anxiety:
   Penelope Aubin’s Queer Writing
   CHRIS MOUNSEY 246
CONTENTS

Queer Doings in Oxford: The Christian's New Warning Piece (1753) 261
  Caroline Gonda

Having it Both Ways? The Eighteenth-Century Menage-à-Trois 274
  Chris Roulston

Notes on Contributors 299

Index 302