The Strategic Triangle
France, Germany, and the United States in the Shaping of the New Europe

Edited by

Woodrow Wilson Center Press
Washington, D.C.

The Johns Hopkins University Press
Baltimore
Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Relations in a Strategic Triangle—Bonn/Berlin, Paris, and Washington 1

Part I The European Community at the Crossroads

Desmond Dinan

2 Germany and the Discord of Its Allies: The Case of the European Political Union 55
Martin Koopmann
Part II The NATO Crisis of the 1960s and the Maturation of the Strategic Triangle

3 The NATO Crisis of 1966–1967: Confronting Germany with a Conflict of Priorities
   Helga Haftendorn

4 The NATO Crisis of 1966–1967: A French Point of View
   Frédéric Bozo

5 The De Gaulle Challenge: The Johnson Administration and the NATO Crisis of 1966–1967
   Thomas A. Schwartz

Part III Dealing with the Collapse of Bretton Woods

6 The Search for a New Monetary System: Germany’s Balancing Act
   Michael Kreile

7 France, European Monetary Cooperation, and the International Monetary System Crisis, 1968–1973
   Eric Bussière

8 The United States and the Search for a New Economic and Monetary System in the 1970s
   William H. Becker

Part IV Ostpolitik and Détente

9 German Ostpolitik in a Multilateral Setting
   Helga Haftendorn

10 President Pompidou, Ostpolitik, and the Strategy of Détente
    Georges-Henri Soutou

Part V Testing Détente and Relaunching Europe

11 The United States Tests Détente
    Gale A. Mattox

12 From Euromissiles to Maastricht: The Policies of Reagan-Bush and Mitterrand
    Samuel F. Wells Jr.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>13 Germany and Relaunching Europe</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Markus Jachtenfuchs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Part VI NATO and Post–Cold War Challenges</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14 Enlarging NATO: The German-American Design for a New Alliance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stephen F. Szabo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15 NATO and the Balkan Challenge: An American Perspective</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kori Schake</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Epilogue: A New Geometry?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contributors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>