Contents

List of figures ix
Acknowledgments xi
Notes on contributors xiii
General Editor’s introduction xvii

1 Introduction Taking the long view: Twelfth Night criticism and performance 1
JAMES SCHIFFER

2 Twelfth Night: editing puzzles and eunuchs of all kinds 45
PATRICIA PARKER

3 “His fancy’s queen”: sensing sexual strangeness in Twelfth Night 65
BRUCE R. SMITH

4 Music, food, and love in the affective landscapes of Twelfth Night 81
DAVID SCHALKWYK

5 “The marriage of true minds”: amity, twinning, and comic closure in Twelfth Night 99
LAURIE E. OSBORNE

6 Masculine plots in Twelfth Night 114
GORAN V. STANIVUKOVIĆ

7 Post-communist nights: Shakespeare, essential masculinity, and Western citizenship 131
MARCELA KOSTIHOVÁ

8 Beyond the “lyric” in Illyricum: some early modern backgrounds to Twelfth Night 149
ELIZABETH PENTLAND
Contents

9 Domesticating strangeness in Twelfth Night 167
CATHERINE LISAK

10 Staging the exotic in Twelfth Night 184
NATHALIE RIVÈRE DE CARLES

11 "The text remains for another attempt": Twelfth Night, or
What You Will on the German stage 201
CHRISTA JANSOHN

12 "What he wills": early modern rings and vows in Twelfth Night 217
ALAN W. POWERS

13 Madness and social mobility in Twelfth Night 229
IVO KAMPS

14 Twelfth Night and the New Orleans Twelfth Night Revelers 244
JENNIFER C. VAUGHT

15 Whodunit? Plot, plotting, and detection in Twelfth Night 258
CYNTHIA LEWIS

Index 273