Children's Fantasy Fiction: Debates for the Twenty First Century

edited by

Nickianne Moody and Clare Horrocks

Association For Research in Popular Fictions

2005
Contents

Introduction
Nickianne Moody and Clare Horrocks 4

'Here Come the Aliens!' Constructions Of Childhood, Aliens And The Picture Book
Mel Gibson 22

Questioning Contemporary Views Of Children And Childhood In Crisis: Burgess’s Bloodtide As A Fantasy Of The Monstrous
Kay Sambell 39

Modern Apprenticeships for Girls: The Teenage Witch Convention in Young Adult Fiction
Nickianne Moody 56

In Pursuit of the Golden Snitch: Harry Potter and the Representation of Adulthood
Karen McGavock 75

'The Voice Coming out of the Dark, in the firelight': Adapting Children's Fantasy For Radio
Simon Flynn 90

Survival into the Twenty First Century: Reading the Victim in Virginia Andrews' Flowers in the Attic
Belinda Stott 111

Fade and the Lone Teenager: Young Adult Fantastic Realism Shaping Modern Individualism
Alison Waller 127

Entrance – Danger – Exit: Fantasy as a Pathway to Maturation in David Almond's novels
Eva Kaum 145
One Thousand Magical Herbs and Beasts: Medieval Elements in the Harry Potter Saga
Alessandra Petrina 161

"You Are Feeling Very Sleepy...": Hypnosis, Enchantment And Mind-Control In Children's Fiction
Charles Butler 175

Toffee Shocks: Lands of the Magic Faraway Tree and Blyton's schematic fantasy
David Rudd 191

'The Dark Is Rising': Aspects Of The Spiritual: The Storyteller Revisited In The Works Of Susan Cooper
Pauline Archell-Thompson 207

Diana Wynne Jones's Other Garden
Andy Sawyer 219

Fairies and Children's Literature: Eighteenth Century Debates And The Postmodern Condition
Francesca Orestano 235

Interview With An Author: Catherine Fisher
Val Williamson 251

Across the Great Divide: Trojan Horse Mechanisms and the Cultural Politics of Children's Fantasy Fiction
Natasha Giardina 267

The Republic of Heaven: The Betrayal of Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials Trilogy
Andrew M. Butler 285

The Question of Social Responsibility versus Artistic Freedom: The Construction (or Destruction) of Women in the Harry Potter Series
Cat Yampell 299
The Forests of the Future: the uses of fantasy in Peter Dickinson’s Eva and The Rope-Maker
Pat Pinsent 315

Princesses and Dragons. The Refashioning of Female Identity as a Rescuer in Victorian and Contemporary Fairy Tales
Laura Tosi 334

Pooh in America: In which the Bear goes on a long explore and becomes altogether different
Deborah Ross 349

Index 361