Table of contents

Introduction

Crossing borderlines: Traditions, disciplines, and controversies

Marcelo Dascal and Han-hang Chang

PART 1 Ancient traditions: East and West

1. Towards a taxonomy of controversies and controversiality: Ancient Greece and China
   Geoffrey Lloyd

2. Controversy in Jewish law: The Talmud's attitude to controversy
   Hanina Ben-Menahem

3. Debates and rhetoric in Sumer
   Simonetta Ponchia

4. Persuasion in the Pre-Qin China: The Great Debate revisited
   Han-liang Chang

5. 'In proper form': Xunzi's theory of xinger
   Peng Yi

6. The right, duty and pleasure of debating in Western culture
   Adelino Cattani

PART 2 Medieval and Early Modern traditions: Logic, dialectic, and rhetoric in controversy

7. The medieval disputatio
   Olga Weijers
8 Disputing about disputing: The medieval procedure of positio and its role in a dispute over the nature of logic and the foundations of metaphysics

Christopher J. Martin

9 Antibarbarous contra pseudophilosophers: Metaphors in an early modern controversy

Cristina Marras

10 Dialectics, topology, and practical philosophy in early modern times

Merio Scattola

PART 3 Modern traditions: The rise of scientific disciplines

11 Legal controversy vs. scientific and philosophical controversies

João Lopes Alves

12 The controversy over the foundation of sociology and its object: Simmel’s form vs. Durkheim’s collectivity

Amos Morris-Reich

13 Controversies about politeness

Chaoqun Xie

14 Controversies over controversies: An ontological perspective on the place of controversy in current historiography

Ofer Gal

15 Traditions of controversy and conflict resolution: Can past approaches help to solve present conflicts?

Marcelo Dascal

About the contributors

Index