THE MEDIA IN SCOTLAND

Edited by Neil Blain and David Hutchison

EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

Preface vii

FRAMING THE DISCUSSION
1. A Cause Still Unwon: The Struggle to Represent Scotland 3
   Neil Blain and Kathryn Burnett
2. Scots, English and Community Languages in the Scottish Media 20
   John Corbett
3. Communications Policy 35
   Philip Schlesinger

THE HISTORICAL CONTEXT
4. The History of the Press 55
   David Hutchison
5. The History of Film and Cinema 71
   David Bruce
6. Broadcasting: From Birth to Devolution . . . and Beyond 87
   Maggie Sweeney

SCREEN AND SOUND
7. Three Ring Circus: Television Drama about, by and for Scotland 107
   John R. Cook
8. ‘Nae Bevving, Nae Skiving’: Language and Community in the Scottish Soap Opera 123
   Hugh O’Donnell
The Media in Scotland

9 Broadcast Comedy
  Ian Mowatt

10 Contemporary Scottish Cinema
  Sarah Neely

11 Radio and Popular Music
  Ken Garner

THEMES AND FUTURES

12 Gender, Spaces, Changes: Emergent Identities in a Scotland in Transition
  Jane Sillars and Myra Macdonald

13 Race and Ethnicity in the Media
  Anthea Irwin

14 Gaelic, the Media and Scotland
  Mike Cormack

15 The Scottish Media and Politics
  Brian McNair

16 A View from Westminster
  Brian Wilson

17 A View from Holyrood
  Michael Russell

18 Media Sport
  Richard Haynes and Raymond Boyle

Select Bibliography

Notes on Contributors

Index