J. M. Coetzee in Context and Theory

Elleke Boehmer, Katy Iddiols and Robert Eaglestone
Contents

Acknowledgements vii
Biographies viii
Introduction 1

Part I Context

1. Post-Apartheid Literature: A Personal View 11
   André Brink

2. Elizabeth Costello as Post-Apartheid Text 20
   Louise Bethlehem, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

3. Coetzee and Gordimer 36
   Karina Magdalena Szczurek

4. Wordsworth and the Recollection of South Africa 47
   Pieter Vermeulen, University of Leuven, Belgium

5. Border Crossings: Self and Text 60
   Sue Kossew, University of New South Wales, Sydney

6. Sex, Comedy and Influence: Coetzee’s Beckett 71
   Derek Attridge, University of York, UK

Part II Theory

7. Writing Desire Responsibly 93
   Rosemary Jolly, Queen’s University, Ontario, Canada

8. Literature, History and Folly 112
   Patrick Hayes, University of Oxford, UK

9. Queer Bodies 123
   Elleke Boehmer, University of Oxford, UK

10. Eating (Dis)Order: From Metaphoric Cannibalism to Cannibalistic Metaphors 135
    Kyoko Yoshida, Keio University, Tokyo, Japan

11. Acts of Mourning 147
    Russell Samolsky, University of California, Santa Barbara, USA

12. Sublime Abjection 159
    Mark Mathuray, Royal Holloway, University of London, UK
Contents

13. Authenticity: Diaries, Chronicles, Records as Index-Simulations 173
   Anne Haeming

14. Disrupting Inauthentic Readings: Coetzee’s Strategies 185
   Katy Iddiols, Royal Holloway, University of London, UK

Index 199