Fields of Expertise: A Comparative History of Expert Procedures in Paris and London, 1600 to Present

Edited by Christelle Rabier
Table of Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Foreword: Expertise in Capitals Cities xi
Stéphane Van Damme
Introduction: Expertise in Historical Perspectives 1
Christelle Rabier

Part I. What is an Expert? 35

1. From “Notables” to “Laymen”: The Evolution of Local Knowledge in Contemporary Public Consultations 37
Cécile Cuny

Robert Iliffe

Christelle Rabier

4. The Judge, the Expert and the Arbitrator: The Strange Case of the Paris Court of Commerce (ca. 1800-ca. 1880) 115
Claire Lemercier

Part II. Experts’ Knowledge in Action 147

5. Academicians and Experts? The Académie Royale des Sciences and Hospital Reform at the End of the Eighteenth Century 149
Sayaka Oki

Charlotte Guichard
7. Picking the Right Firm: The Selection of Entrepreneurs for Public Procurement in Nineteenth-Century Paris
Helene Lemesle

8. Legitimacy Through Negotiated Expertise: Defining the National Economic Council in France during the Interwar Years
Alain Chatriot

PART III. EXPERTISE AND POWERS IN CAPITAL CITIES

9. Surveying Conflicts over the Briare Canal: Local Contractors, Dutch Engineers, Paris Masons and the State (1604-1612)
Raphael Morera

10. Innovation and Risk Management in Late Eighteenth-Century France: The Administration of Inventions in French Cities at the End of the Old Régime
Marie Thébaud-Sorger

11. A Question of Life and Death: Administering Bodies and Administrative Bodies in Nineteenth-Century Paris
Stephen W. Sawyer

12. From Laboratory Expertise to Litigation: The Municipal Laboratory of Paris and the Inland Revenue Laboratory in London, 1870-1914: A Comparative Analysis
Peter Atkins & Alessandro Stanziani

Envoy: Roy MacLeod

List of Contributors