DEBATING THE AMERICAN
CONSERVATIVE MOVEMENT

1945 to the Present

DONALD T. CRITCHLOW AND NANCY MACLEAN
CONTENTS

Preface vii

The Conservative Ascendancy 1

Donald T. Critchlow

Documents

1 Conservatives Debate the Cold War: Excerpt from Ronald Hamowy and William F. Buckley Jr., “Conservatism and the National Review: Criticism and Reply” (November 1961) 61

2 Young Conservatives Organize: The Sharon Statement (September 11, 1960) 75

3 A Conservative Speaks in Favor of Civil Rights: Senator Everett Dirksen, Congressional Record (June 1964) 77

4 A Conservative Opposes the Civil Rights Act of 1964: Senator Barry Goldwater, Congressional Record (June 1964) 83

5 The Cold War and the Arms Race: Excerpt from Memorandum to Donald Rumsfeld from Paul H. Nitze (December 19, 1974) 87

6 Conservative Values: Ronald Reagan, “Remarks at the Annual Convention of the National Association of the Evangelicals” (March 8, 1983) 99

7 Ronald Reagan, “Creators of the Future” (March 1, 1985) 109
8 Conservatives on Religious Freedom: Mitt Romney, "Religious Liberty" (2008) 117

Guardians of Privilege
Nancy MacLean

Documents
1 Frank Meyer, "What Is Conservatism?" (1966) 177
2 Barry Goldwater, "I Sense Here a Realignment of Southern Conservative Democrats" (1953) 181
3 Richard M. Weaver, "Integration Is Communization" (1957) 183
4 "Our Position on States' Rights Is the Same as Your Own":
Letter from William F. Buckley Jr. to W. J. Simmons
(September 10, 1958); Letter from W. J. Simmons to
J. P. McFadden (September 5, 1958) 187
5 Young Americans for Freedom, "King Was a Collectivist"
(1968) 189
6 William F. Buckley Jr., "Linda's Crusade" (May 21, 1968) 193
7 Phyllis Schlafly, "What's Wrong with 'Equal Rights' for Women?" (February 1972) 197
8 "Jefferson Davis's Descendents . . . Are Becoming Involved with the Republican Party": Southern Partisan
Interview with Trent Lott (1984) 201
9 Elizabeth Birch, "An Open Letter to the Christian Coalition" (1995) 205

Selected Readings 211
Index 221
About the Authors 235