CONTENTS

List of contributors vii
Introduction 1

I. Cultural Roots
1 John Buchan and Calvinism – the Rev. James C. G. Greig 7
2 Buchan and the Classics – Michael and Isobel Haslett 17
4 Buchan, Sport and Masculinity – Simon Glassock 41
5 John Buchan and the Creation of the Springbok Warrior – Bill Nasson 53

II. Divided Loyalties
6 John Buchan and the South African War – Michael Redley 65
7 John Buchan and the First World War: Fact into Fiction – Hew Strachan 77
8 Buchan and the Pacifists – Nathan Waddell 91
9 John Buchan, America and the ‘British World’, 1904–40 – Peter Henshaw 103
10 Islam and the East in John Buchan’s Novels – Ahmed K al-Rawi 117
11 Conquistadors: Buchan’s Businessmen – H. E. Taylor 129

III. Literary Art
12 ‘A Fraud Called John Buchan’: Buchan, Joseph Conrad and Literary Theft – Douglas Kerr 141
13 Aphrodite rejected: Archetypal Women in Buchan’s Fiction – Kate Macdonald 153
14 John Buchan: Politics, Language and Suspense – Alan Riach 171
15 Buchan’s Supernatural Fiction – Paul Benedict Grant 183
17 Tracing The Thirty-Nine Steps – Tony Williams 207

Notes 219
Works Cited 257
Index 279