Texts Histories Geographies: Reading Indian Literature

P P Raveendran

Orient BlackSwan
Contents

Preface vii
Introduction: Modernity and the Hermetic Aesthetic 1

Part I: Politics, Theory
1. Genealogies of Indian Literature 14
2. Nationalism, Colonialism and Indian English Literature 33
3. Postcoloniality and the Indian Diaspora: A Minority View 46

Part II: History, Location
4. Literary Historiography in Malayalam 62
5. Reflections on History, Fiction and Historical Fiction 74
6. A Poet, a Critic and the Dialectic of the Indian Renaissance 99
7. Myth, Truth and History in Contemporary Novel 114

Part III: Culture, Translation
8. Mapping the Khasak Landscape: An Essay on Translation 128
9. Fiction and Reception: The Mahabharata Novels in Malayalam 141
10. Translation as Hoax: Art, Othering and Life Writing 152

Part IV: Texts, Readings
11. Kamala Das: Text and History in the Anamalai Poems 170
12. Jayanta Mahapatra: Decolonizing Indian English Poetry 180
13. Shashi Deshpande: The Sexual Politics of Fiction 197
14. Ayyappa Paniker: Poetry as Inter-text 208
15. Meenakshi Mukherjee: Towards a New Critical Paradigm 216

Bibliography 229
Index 239