Contents

Note on References xvii
Other Abbreviations xviii
Chronological List of Selden's Writings xix

VOLUME I

1. Early Years: Education 1

2. The Inner Temple and Literary London 9

3. The Resources for Scholarship in the Early Seventeenth Century 28
   1. Classical and medieval texts 29
   2. Ancient inscriptions 34
   3. Numismatics 36
   4. Legal texts and treatises 36
   5. Hebrew and other non-European texts 41
   6. Libraries 43
   7. Acquisition of books and manuscripts 46
   8. Archives 51
   9. Forgeries and romances 55
  10. The bible as a historical authority 62
  11. Chronology 64
  12. Etymologies 67

4. Early Works 69
   Analecta Anglobritannica 71
   Janus Anglorum 88
   England's Epinomis 102
   Duello 104
   Illustrations to Poly-Olbion 108
   Critique of the early works 124
Contents

5. ‘Antiquarian’ Writings 126
   Titles of Honor 1614 126
   Titles of Honor 1631 158
   Of the Iewes sometimes living in England 168
   Letter to Vincent (1622) 171

6. Writings on English Legal History 174
   Fortescue 174
   Hengham 185
   Original of Testaments and Intestates Goods 190
   Dissertatio ad Fletam 196

7. De Diis Syris 211
   DS1617 211
   The réception of De Diis Syris 250
   DS1629 252
   Critiques of De Diis Syris 254

8. The Historie of Tithes 257
   Tithes and ‘divine right’ 257
   Why did Selden write Historie of Tithes? 258
   Composition of Historie of Tithes 261
   Significance of the title 262
   Publication of the book 262
   The Preface 265
   Tithes in the Old Testament 267
   Tithes among the gentiles 269
   History of tithes among Christians generally 270
   History of tithes in England 278
   The Review 298
   Critique of Historie of Tithes 303
   The aftermath 304

9. The Social and Political Background to Selden’s Later Work 311
   Patrons, friends, and acquaintances 311
Contents

The Virginia Company 320
Parliaments 320
Imprisonment and bail 330

10. Works on English Medieval History 334
   Eadmer 334
   Matthew Paris (1640) 345
   Historiae Anglicanae Scriptores 349

11. Marmora Arundelliana 360
    The inscriptions 360
    The edition 362
    Critique of Marmora Arundelliana 386

12. Mare Clausum 388
    Origin and publication of the book 388
    Book I 395
    Book II 412
    Critiques and reception of Mare Clausum 433

VOLUME II

13. Earlier Works on Jewish law 441
    Selden's approach to Jewish law 441
    De Successionibus in Bona Defuncti 447
    Features of the 1636 edition 469
    De Successione in Pontificatum 471

14. De Iure Naturali 490
    Origin of the book 490
    Title and preface 491
    Book I 493
    Books II-VII 506
    Critiques of De Iure Naturali 559
Contents

15. The Long Parliament and the Promotion of Scholarship 563
   Selden in the Long Parliament 563
   Religion and the Westminster Assembly 569
   The universities 575
   Libraries 579
   Aid to scholars and promotion of scholarship 583
   Table Talk 593

16. Arabic Studies 595
   Helpers and aids to study 595
   Biblical and Christian religious works 597
   Eutychius 600
   The Koran 614
   Other Arabic works 619
   Printing in Arabic 623
   Selden's contribution to Arabic studies 623

17. Karaite Influences: De Anno Civili and Uxor Ebraica 626
   De Anno Civili 628
   Uxor Ebraica 643

18. De Synedriis 692
   De Synedriis I 693
   De Synedriis II 724
   De Synedriis III 763
   Critiques of De Synedriis 786

19. Death and Legacy 789
   Deathbed Scenes 789
   Funeral and tomb 791
   Selden's will 792
   The fate of Selden's library 793