The Exploitations
of Medieval Romance

Edited by
LAURA ASHE, IVANA DJORDJEVIĆ
AND JUDITH WEISS

D. S. BREWER
Contents

Preface vii
Notes on Contributors viii
Abbreviations and Editorial Note x

Introduction 1
Laura Ashe

1 The Fairies in the Fountain: Promiscuous Liaisons 15
Neil Cartlidge

2 Saracens and Other Saxons: Using, Misusing, and Confusing Names in Gui de Warewic and Guy of Warwick 28
Ivana Djordjević

3 The Exploitation of Ideas of Pilgrimage and Sainthood in Gui de Warewic 43
Judith Weiss

4 Chanson de geste as Romance in England 57
Melissa Furrow

5 Patterns of Availability and Demand in Middle English Translations de romanz 73
Rosalind Field

6 Reading a Christian–Saracen Debate in Fifteenth-Century Middle English Charlemagne Romance: The Case of Turpines Story 90
Diane Vincent

7 Subtle Crafts: Magic and Exploitation in Medieval English Romance 108
Corinne Saunders

8 Meeting Grounds: Gardens in Middle English Romance 125
Arlyn Diamond

9 ‘Als for the worthynes of be romance’: Exploitation of Genre in the Buik of Kyng Alexander the Conquerour 139
Anna Caughey

10 Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and the Limits of Chivalry 159
Laura Ashe

Index of Manuscripts 173
General Index 175