Hispanic Caribbean Literature of Migration

Narratives of Displacement

Edited by

Vanessa Pérez Rosario
Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: Historical Context of Caribbean Latino Literature

Vanessa Pérez Rosario

1

I Migratory Identities

1 The Unbreakable Voice in a Minor Language: Following José Martí’s Migratory Routes

Laura Lomas 23

2 Más que Cenizas: An Analysis of Juan Bosch’s Dissident Narration of Dominicanidad (Ausente)

Lorgia García Peña 39

3 Creating Latinidad: Julia de Burgos’ Legacy on U.S. Latina Literature

Vanessa Pérez Rosario 57

II Dislocated Narratives

4 Travel and Family in Julia Alvarez’s Canon

Vivian Nun Halloran 75

5 Making It Home: A New Ethics of Immigration in Dominican Literature

Ylce Irizarry 89

6 Days of Awe and the Jewish Experience of a Cuban Exile: The Case of Achy Obejas

Carolyn Wolfenzon 105

III Gender Crossings

7 A Community in Transit: The Performative Gestures of Manuel Ramos Otero’s Narrative Triptych

Mónica Lladó-Ortega 121
Contents

8 A Revolution in Pink: Cuban Queer Literature Inside and Outside the Island 137
Ana Belén Martín Sevillano

9 Gender Pirates of the Caribbean: Queering Caribbeanness in the Novels of Zoé Valdés and Christopher John Farley 153
Omise’eke Natasha Tinsley

IV Racial Migrations

10 Insular Interventions: Jesús Colón Unmasks Racial Harmonizing and Populist Uplift Discourses in Puerto Rico 171
Maritza Stanchich

11 Coloniality of Diasporas: Racialization of Negropolitans and Nuyoricans in Paris and New York 189
Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel

12 The Dominican Diaspora Strikes Back: Cultural Archive and Race in Junot Díaz’s The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao 207
Juanita Heredia

Notes on Contributors 223

Index 227