Postcolonial Issues
IN
AUSTRALIAN LITERATURE

EDITED BY
Nathanael O’Reilly

CAMBRIA PRESS
Amherst, New York
Table of Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Australian Literature as Postcolonial Literature
Nathanael O'Reilly 1

Chapter 1: Reading Post-Colonial Australia
Bill Ashcroft 15

Chapter 2: Jack Lindsay, Patrick White, and Postcolonial Medievalism
Nicholas Birns 41

Chapter 3: A Postcolonial Perspective on Regional Literature in Australia
Per Henningsgaard 57

Chapter 4: “Thick With Coded Testaments”: Negotiating Postcolonial Space in Janette Turner Hospital’s *Oyster
Nicholas Dunlop 75

Chapter 5: Spaces of Hybridity: Creating a Sense of Belonging through Spatial Awareness
Lesley Hawkes 93

Chapter 6: The Unbearable (Im)Possibility of Belonging: Andrew McGahan’s The White Earth as a Postcolonial Novel
Martina Horakova 109
Chapter 7: The Sorry Novels: Peter Carey's
Oscar and Lucinda, Greg Matthews'
The Wisdom of Stones, and Kate Grenville's
The Secret River
Rebecca Weaver-Hightower 129

Chapter 8: Need I Repeat?: Settler Colonial Biopolitics and Postcolonial Iterability in Kim Scott's Benang
Michael R. Griffiths 157

Chapter 9: Negotiating Subjectivity: Indigenous Feminist Praxis and the Politics of Aboriginality in Alexis Wright’s Plains of Promise and Melissa Lucashenko’s Steam Pigs
Tomoko Ichitani 185

Chapter 10: “[P]eople Often Judged by What They Feared or Knew Existed in Themselves”:
Postcolonialism, the Gothic, and Disability in The Well
Katie Ellis 203

Chapter 11: Revisiting Australia: Historical Fabrications, Telling Histories/Stories, and Other Colonial Delusions in Peter Carey's My Life as a Fake
Sarah Zapata 219

Chapter 12: The Postcolonial Screen: Elaborate
Forgeries in Rodney Hall’s
The Second Bridegroom
Peter Mathews 237
Table of Contents

Chapter 13: Colonial Knowledge, Post-Colonial Poetics
   Lyn McCready 255

Bibliography 279

Notes on Contributors 307

Index 311