Contents

Acknowledgments | vii
Introduction, Deborah L. Madsen and A. Robert Lee | 1

PART ONE

Texts

1. Storier: Gerald Vizenor's Father Meme, A. Robert Lee | 12
2. Pacifists, Tricksters, Writers, and Victims in Hiroshima Bugi, Alan R. Velie | 30
3. Gerald's Game: Postindian Subjectivity in Vizenor's Interior Landscapes, Michael Snyder | 46
5. Satirical Ambivalence and Vizenor's Bearheart, Helmbrecht Breinig | 86
6. Moon Vines Among the Ruins: Vizenor's Poetics of Native Presence, David L. Moore | 106

PART TWO

Contexts

7. Writing in the Fourth Person: A Lacanian Reading of Vizenor's Pronouns, Deborah L. Madsen | 130
8. "He Made a Teasing Whistle on the Wind": Situating the Literary Activism of Gerald Vizenor, Chris LaLonde | 152
9. Scenes of Picturing: Gerald Vizenor's Phototext, Shamoon Zamir | 166
10. Postindian Survivance: Gerald Vizenor and Kimberly Blaeser, Jill Doerfler | 186
12. Museum Survivance: Vizenor Before and After Repatriation, Linda Lizut Helstern | 231
13. The Trick of Grieving Well and the Grief of Tricking Well: The Unspeakable Gerald Vizenor, Kathryn W. Shanley | 249
PART THREE

Vizenor Texts

14. Praise the Ravens: A Literary Interview, Gerald Vizenor and A. Robert Lee | 268
15. Constitution of the White Earth Nation, Gerald Vizenor | 282
16. The Constitution of the White Earth Nation, Gerald Vizenor and Others | 290

Notes on Contributors | 307
Index | 311