London Gothic: Place, Space and the Gothic Imagination

Edited by
Lawrence Phillips and Anne Witchard

Continuum Literary Studies
Contents

List of Illustrations vii
Notes on Contributors viii

Chapter 1 Introduction
Anne Witchard and Lawrence Phillips 1

Part One: Victorians to Moderns

Chapter 2 Toward a Phenomenology of Urban Gothic:
The Example of Dickens
Julian Wolfreys 9

Chapter 3 ‘A Fatal Freshness’: Mid-Victorian Suburbophobia
Anne Witchard 23

Chapter 4 ‘A City of Nightmares’: Suburban Anxiety in Arthur Machen’s London Gothic
Amanda Mordavsky Caleb 41

Chapter 5 An Occult Gazetteer of Bloomsbury:
An Experiment in Method
Roger Luckhurst 50

Part Two: Contemporary Prose Narratives

Chapter 6 ‘This Light was Pale and Ghostly’: Stewart Home,
Horror and the Gothic Destruction of ‘London’
Alex Murray 65

Chapter 7 ‘[T]hat Eventless Realm’: Hilary Mantel’s Beyond Black and the Ghosts of the M25
Catherine Spooner 80

Chapter 8 ‘Where The Evil Is’: The London of Derek Raymond
Nick Freeman 91

Chapter 9 Rats, Floods and Flowers: London’s Gothicized Nature
Jenny Davidge 103
Part Three: Sites, Performance and Film

Chapter 10 Gog and Magog: Guardians of the City
   J. S. Mackley
   121

Chapter 11 'West End Ghosts and Southwark Horrors':
   London's Gothic Tourism
   Emma McEvoy
   140

Chapter 12 Zombie London: Unexceptionalities of the
   New World Order
   Fred Botting
   153

Chapter 13 What Lies Beneath: The London Underground and Contemporary Gothic Film Horror
   Lawrence Phillips
   172

Index
183