THE ROUTLEDGE FILM MUSIC SOURCEBOOK

EDITED BY

JAMES WIERZBICKI, NATHAN PLATTE, AND COLIN ROUST

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
NEW YORK AND LONDON
CONTENTS

Preface
Acknowledgments

PART 1

"Silent" Film

1 Early Approaches to Film Accompaniment

1.1 Clarence E. Sinn: “Music for the Picture” (1910)
1.2 Clyde Martin: “Playing the Pictures” (1910)
1.3 Louis Reeves Harrison: “Jackass Music” (1911)

2 Dreams of the Future

2.1 Carl Van Vechten: “Music for the Movies” (1916)
2.2 “The Surveys of Le Film: Music and the Cinema” (1919)

3 Practical Advice in the Heyday of the Silent Film

3.1 Erno Rapee: “Musical Accompaniment to the Feature Picture” (1925)
3.2 Victor Wagner: “Scoring a Motion Picture” (1926)
3.3 Hans Erdmann: “The Artistic Feature Film and Music: Its Genres” (1927)

PART 2

Early Sound Film

4 Transitional Concerns

4.1 Edwin Evans: “Music and the Cinema” (1929)
4.2 Dmitry Shostakovich: “About the Music to New Babylon” (1929)
4.3 Darius Milhaud: “Experimenting with Sound Films” (1930)

5 Accounts of the Sound Film’s Early Years

5.1 Philip K. Scheurer: “Musical Picture Quietly Undergoes Renaissance” (1931)
5.2 Helen Louise Walker: “Musical Pictures Are Here Again” (1931)
5.3 Edwin Schallert: “Film Music Experiences Its Sanest Development” (1932)

6 Debates on the Future of Music in Sound Films
   6.1 Virgil Thomson: “A Little About Movie Music” (1933)
   6.2 Clarence Raybould: “Music and the Synchronized Film” (1933)
   6.3 Azary Azarin: “Musical Surprises” (1935)
   6.4 Nikolai Kryukov: “The Experience of the Composer” (1936)

PART 3
Music in the Classical-Style Film

7 Practical Advice as Film Music’s “Classical Style” Takes Shape
   7.1 Arthur Benjamin: “Film Music” (1937)
   7.2 George Antheil: “On the Hollywood Front” (1938)
   7.3 Franz Waxman: “History of Motion Picture Music” (1940)
   7.4 David O. Selznick: “Memoranda” (1937, 1941)

8 Aesthetic Squabbles
   8.1 Gianandrea Gavazzeni: “Music and Cinema: An Impossible Marriage” (1943)
   8.2 Fedele d’Amico: “Music and Cinema: A Difficult Marriage” (1943)
   8.3 Erich Leinsdorf: “Music and the Screen” (1945)
   8.4 Bernard Herrmann: “Music in Films—A Rebuttal” (1945)
   8.5 Bosley Crowther: “Heard Melodies” (1945)

PART 4
The Postwar Years

9 European vs. American Attitudes
   9.1 Antony Hopkins: “Music: Congress at Florence” (1950)
   9.2 Lawrence Morton: “Film Music of the Quarter” (1951)
   9.3 Hans Keller: “Hollywood Orchestrators: The Dragon Shows His Teeth” (1951)
   9.4 Georges Auric: “How Film Music Was Born and How It Is Made Today” (1952)

10 Foreign Ideas
   10.1 John Cage: “A Few Ideas about Music and Film” (1951)
   10.2 Pierre Schaeffer: “Concrete Music” (1954)

11 Stylistic Novelties
CONTENTS

11.3 Thomas P. Ronan: “British Rattled by Rock ‘n’ Roll” (1956)
11.4a Mae Tinee: “‘Real Crazy’ Mansfield in Raucous Film” (1957)
11.4b Mae Tinee: “Films’ Appeal is Based on Rock ‘n’ Roll” (1957)
11.6 Martin Bernheimer: “Electronic Strains Reinforce Andromeda Film Score” (1971)

PART 5
Changing Times 175

12 Gloom and Doom 177
12.1 Elmer Bernstein: “What Ever Happened to Great Movie Music?” (1972)

13 Plenty of Optimism 188
13.1 Charles Champlin: “Sound and Fury over Film Music” (1967)
13.2 Leonard Rosenman: “Notes from a Sub-Culture” (1968)

PART 6
The Business of Film Music 201

14 Labor Pains 203
14.1a Howard Kennedy: “Musicians to Picket Two Films in 20 U.S. Cities” (1958)
14.1b Thomas M. Pryor: “Musicians Guild Wins Coast Vote” (1958)
14.1c Anon: “Musicians Guild Wins 14% Hike in Studio Pay” (1958)
14.3a Anon: “AFM, Film Producers Reach New Three-Year Pact” (1990)
14.3b Florence Nelson: “Keeping Film Scoring on Our Shores” (2005)

15 Soundtrack Albums 218
15.1 Vincent Canby: “Music Is Now Profit to the Ears of Filmmakers” (1966)
15.3 Steven Smith: “Movie Music: Is It Becoming Hit or Miss?” (1986)
CONTENTS

PART 7
A Whole New World 229

16 New Instruments 231

17 New Methods 258

PART 8
Today, Tomorrow 273

18 Fin de siècle 275
  18.1 Donal Henahan: “Film Music Has Two Masters” (1987)
  18.3 James Hunter: “Keeping Scores: Good Old-Fashioned Movie Music Is as Healthy as It Ever Was” (1998)
  18.4 Catherine Applefeld Olson: “Many Ways to Score” (1999)

19 Onward and Upward? 287
  19.1 David Schiff: “Taking Movie Music Seriously, Like It Or Not” (2001)
  19.4 Kevin Cassidy: “Hollywood Composers Tune In for Rare Gathering” (2008)
  19.5 Todd Martens: “127 Hours and Other Films Take Experimental Turns in Music” (2010)

Notes 307
Contributors 352
Filmography 354
Permission Acknowledgments 373
Index 376