Table of Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Foreword by Elizabeth Figa 1
Foreword by Derek Parker Royal 3
Introduction (Robert G. Weiner) 5

Part One: History
1. A Librarian's Guide to the History of Graphic Novels
   ALICIA HOLSTON 9
   DAVID HOPKINS 17
3. How Librarians Learned to Love the Graphic Novel
   AMY KISTE NYBERG 26

Part Two: School Libraries
4. The Development of a School Library Graphic Novel Collection
   HEIDI K. HAMMOND 41
5. Balancing Popular High-Circulation Works with Works of Merit in Elementary School Library Collections
   DIANA P. MALISZEWSKI 47

Part Three: Public Libraries
6. Creative Shelving: Placement in Library Collections
   AMY HARTMAN 52
7. Graphic Novels at Los Angeles Public
   RACHEL KITZMANN 63
8. Teen-Led Revamp
   ERICA SEGRAVES 68

Part Four: Academic Libraries
9. Selection and Popular Culture in Large Academic Libraries: Taking the Temperature of Your Research Community
   CHARLOTTE CUBBAGE 72
Table of Contents

10. Maus Goes to College: Graphic Novels on Reserve at an Academic Library
   Anne-Marie Davis
   81

11. The Library After Dark: The Promotion of Collections and Services
   Gwen Evans
   87

12. So Many Options, So Little Money: Building a Selective Collection for the Academic Library
   Liorah Anne Golomb
   101

13. The Spinner Rack in the Big Red and Ivory Tower: Establishing a Comics and Graphic Novels Collection at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln
   Richard Graham
   111

14. Comic Art Collection at the Michigan State University Libraries
   Randall W. Scott
   123

15. Interview with Randall W. Scott
   Nicholas Yanes and Robert G. Weiner
   127

Part Five: State Libraries/Archives

16. The Perils of Doctor Strange: Preserving Pennsylvania-Centered Comics at the State Library of Pennsylvania
   William T. Fee
   131

Part Six: Audiences

17. Graphic Novels and the Untapped Audience
   Ruth Boyer
   141

18. Comic Relief in Libraries: Motivating Male Adolescent Readers
   Karen Gavigan
   145

19. "Forty-one-year-old female academics aren’t supposed to like comics!" The Value of Comic Books to Adult Readers
   Sarah Ziolkowska and Vivian Howard
   154

20. Graphics Let Teens OWN the Library
   Christian Zabriskie
   167

Part Seven: Nomenclature and Aesthetics

21. The Only Thing Graphic Is Your Mind: Reconstructing the Reference Librarian’s View of the Genre
   Amanda Stegall-Armour
   177

22. What’s in a Name: Nomenclature and Libraries
   Francisca Goldsmith
   185

23. The Ontology of Art and What Libraries Should Buy
   Ruth Tallman and Jason Southworth
   192
Table of Contents

Part Eight: Meta-Comics/Webcomics

   ADAM J. NOBLE  202

25. Webcomics and Libraries
   AMY THORNE  209

Part Nine: Cataloging

26. Cataloging and the Problem of Access:
   Creativity, Collaboration and Compromise
   LAUREL TARULLI  213

27. An Example of an In-House Cataloging System
   ROBERT G. WEINER  222

Part Ten: Evaluation of Collections

28. Drawing Comics into Canadian Libraries
   RACHEL COLLINS  226

29. Graphic Novel Holdings in Academic Libraries
   ERIC WERTHMANN  242

Afterword by Stephen Weiner  260

About the Contributors  263

Index  267