Approaches to Teaching Faulkner's
As I Lay Dying

Edited by Patrick O'Donnell and Lynda Zwinger

The Modern Language Association of America
New York 2011
CONTENTS

Preface

PART ONE: MATERIALS

- Publication History and Editions 9
- Biographical Materials 9
- Textual Aids and Resources 10
- Cultural and Aesthetic Contexts 11
- Critical Works 12
- Maps and Genealogies 15
- As I Lay Dying as Play and Opera 15

PART TWO: APPROACHES

Introduction 19

Contextual Approaches

- Addie Bundren, Modernity, and Authorship in As I Lay Dying 21
  Barbara Ladd
- “The Past Is Never Dead”: Reading As I Lay Dying for Our Time 33
  Cheryl Lester
- Does Anse Bundren Love His Wife? Gifts, Promises, and Obligations in As I Lay Dying 48
  Sean McCann

Modernist Strategies

- Telling Time: The Use of Montage in the Narration of As I Lay Dying 62
  E. L. McCallum
- Nonlinear Perspectives in As I Lay Dying 74
  Homer B. Pettrey
- As I Lay Dying: A Modernist Epic 84
  Heide Ziegler

Thematic and Theoretical Approaches

- “Seeing into the Heart”: Teaching the Vardaman Narratives of As I Lay Dying 100
  Michael Zeitlin
“Salvation Is Just Words Too”: Addie Bundren and the Language of Motherhood
Annette Wannamaker

“It Aint Balanced Right”: Repositioning the Body in and of
As I Lay Dying
Lisa K. Perdigao

“It Means Three Dollars”: Following the Money in As I Lay Dying
Deborah Clarke

A Tale of Two Novels
Donald M. Kartiganer

Comparative and Intertextual Approaches

As I Lay Dying: Approaching the Postcolonial
John T. Matthews

“Inspiriting Influences”: Textual Performance in William Faulkner’s As I Lay Dying and Suzan-Lori Parks’s Getting Mother’s Body
Cedric Gael Bryant

Teaching As I Lay Dying in Cross-Cultural Contexts
Mark Frisch

Notes on Contributors

Works Cited

Index