Contents

Series Editor's Introduction vii

Chapter 1 Louise Erdrich: The Aesthetics of Mino Bimaadiziwin
Deborah L. Madsen 1

PART I Tracks

Introduction 15
Deborah L. Madsen

Chapter 2 A Bowen Family Systems Reading of Tracks
Allan Chavkin and Nancy Feyl Chavkin 19

Chapter 3 'I knew there never was another martyr like me':
Pauline Puyat, Historical Trauma and Tracks
Connie A. Jacobs 34

Chapter 4 'To become a bureaucrat myself':
History and Law in Tracks
David Stirrup 48

PART II The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse

Introduction 63
Deborah L. Madsen

Chapter 5 Power and Authority in the Realms of Racial and Gender Politics: Post-colonial and Critical Race Theory in The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse 67
Mark Shackleton

Chapter 6 'We Speak of Everything': Indigenous Traditions in
The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse
P. Jane Hafen 82
Chapter 7  Love and the Slippery Slope of Sexual Orientation: L/G/B/T/Q etc. Sensibility in The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse

Patrice Hollrah

PART III  The Plague of Doves

Introduction

Deborah L. Madsen

Chapter 8  ‘It All Does Come to Nothing in the End’: Nationalism and Gender in Louise Erdrich's The Plague of Doves

Gina Valentino

Chapter 9  So, a Priest Walks into a Reservation Tragicomedy: Humor in The Plague of Doves

John Gamber

Chapter 10  Haunted by Birds: An Eco-critical View of Personhood in The Plague of Doves

Catherine Rainwater

Notes on Chapters

Works Cited

Further Reading

Notes on Contributors

Index