PRESCRIBED

Writing, Filling, Using, and Abusing the Prescription in Modern America

Edited by
Jeremy A. Greene
and
Elizabeth Siegel Watkins

The Johns Hopkins University Press
Baltimore
Contents

List of Abbreviations ix

Introduction: The Prescription in Perspective 1
Jeremy A. Greene and Elizabeth Siegel Watkins

1 Goofball Panic: Barbiturates, “Dangerous”, and Addictive Drugs, and the Regulation of Medicine in Postwar America 23
Nicolas Rasmussen

2 Pharmacological Restraints: Antibiotic Prescribing and the Limits of Physician Autonomy 46
Scott H. Podolsky

3 “Eroding the Physician’s Control of Therapy”: The Postwar Politics of the Prescription 66
Dominique A. Tobbell

4 Deciphering the Prescription: Pharmacists and the Patient Package Insert 91
Elizabeth Siegel Watkins

5 The Right to Write: Prescription and Nurse Practitioners 117
Julie A. Fairman

6 The Best Prescription for Women’s Health: Feminist Approaches to Well-Woman Care 134
Judith A. Houck

7 “Safer Than Aspirin”: The Campaign for Over-the-Counter Oral Contraceptives and Emergency Contraceptive Pills 157
Heather Munro Prescott
Contents

8 The Prescription as Stigma: Opioid Pain Relievers and the Long Walk to the Pharmacy Counter 184
Marcia L. Meldrum

David Herzberg

10 The Afterlife of the Prescription: The Sciences of Therapeutic Surveillance 232
Jeremy A. Greene

Time Line of Federal Regulations and Rulings Related to the Prescription 257
Notes 259
List of Contributors 321
Index 323