Contents

Acknowledgements xi
Contributors xiii

Unsettling Governance: From Bark Petition to YouTube 1
Morgan Brigg and Sarah Maddison

Part 1
Framing Contemporary Governance

1. Beyond Captives and Captors: Settler-Indigenous Governance for the 21st Century 16
Morgan Brigg and Lyndon Murphy

2. Reclaiming History for Aboriginal Governance: Tasmanian Stories 32
Patsy Cameron and Linn Miller

3. Indigenous People in the Media: Telling it Like it Is and How it Could Be 51
Kirstie Parker

Part 2
Aboriginal Law and Contemporary Political Practice

4. The Way of the Walawalarra: Kapululangu’s Two-way Governance 68
Zohl de Ishtar and the Women Elders of Kapululangu Aboriginal Women’s Law and Culture Centre

5. Alcohol Restrictions in the Fitzroy Valley: Trauma and Resilience 83
June Oscar and Howard Pedersen

Steve Hemming, Daryle Rigney and Shaun Berg
CONTENTS

Part 3
Regional Governance and Collaboration

7. Murdi Paaki: Challenge, Continuity and Change
   Sam Jeffries, Sarah Maddison and George Menham
   116

8. Indigenous Governance Structures in the Southwest of Western Australia
   Manuhuia Barcham
   131

   Angela Pitts with Mick Mundine
   148

Part 4
Future Governing

10. The National Congress of Australia’s First Peoples: Changing the Relationship between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples and the State?
    Tom Calma and Darren Dick
    168

11. An Australian Dialogue: Decolonising the Country
    Patrick Dodson and Darryl Cronin
    189

Epilogue: Can the Settler State Settle with Whom it Colonises?
Reasons for Hope and Priorities for Action
    Lester-Irabinna Rigney
    206

References
    212

Index
    227