CONTENTS

vii  Foreword
     —Barbara Carpenter

3   Introduction. Ethnicity in Mississippi: Stories Worth Telling
     —Shana Walton

SECTION I
Immigrants, Identity, and Sites of Connection

15  1. The International Immigrants of Mississippi: An Overview
     —Carl L. Bankston III

32  2. European Mississippians
     —Celeste Ray

74  3. African American Sacred and Secular Identities in Mississippi’s Piney Woods
     —Joyce Marie Jackson

98  4. The Story of Mound Bayou
     —Amy L. Young and Milburn J. Crowe

122  5. Down Around Biloxi: An Overview of Ethnic and Occupational Identity in a Coastal Town
     —Aimée L. Schmidt

SECTION II
Ethnicity in a Biracial Culture

145  6. Mississippi Delta Chinese
     —Emily Erwin Jones and Frieda Quon
CONTENTS

172 7. Mississippi Mahjar: The Lebanese Immigration Experience in the Delta
—James Thomas

193 8. Chai Cotton: Jewish Life in Mississippi
—Stuart Rockoff

219 9. "Chahta Siyah Ókîh: Ethnicity in the Oral Tradition of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians
—Tom Mould

SECTION III
Local Changes, Global Forces

263 10. The Vietnamese in Mississippi
—Vy Thuc Dao

284 11. The Changing Face of Hindu Identity in Jackson, Mississippi
—Devparna Roy and Lola Williamson

309 12. Filipinas in the Deep South: Reading Domestic Oral Narratives as Sites of Politicization and Community Building
—Linda Pierce Allen

333 13. The Genesis of a New Ethnic Group?: The Meanings of Latino/Hispanic Identity in South Mississippi
—Bridget Anne Hayden

353 Postscript. Celebrating Heritage and Recognizing Complexity and Change in Mississippi Culture
—Shana Walton

367 Contributors

371 Index