Mary Shelley
FRANKENSTEIN

THE 1818 TEXT
CONTEXTS
CRITICISM
Second Edition

Edited by
J. PAUL HUNTER
UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, EMERITUS
Contents

List of Illustrations viii
Introduction ix

The Text of Frankenstein 1
MAP: Geneva and Its Environs 2
Title page (1818) 3
Dedication (1818) 4
Preface 5
Frankenstein 7

Contexts

CIRCUMSTANCE, INFLUENCE, COMPOSITION, REVISION
Mary Shelley • Introduction to Frankenstein, Third Edition (1831) 165
John William Polidori • Letter Prefaced to The Vampyre (1819) 169
M. K. Joseph • The Composition of Frankenstein 170
Chris Baldick • [Assembling Frankenstein] 173
Richard Holmes • [Mary Shelley and the Power of Contemporary Science] 183
Christa Knellwolf and Jane Goodall • [The Significance of Place: Ingolstadt] 194
Charles E. Robinson • Texts in Search of an Editor: Reflections on The Frankenstein Notebooks and on Editorial Authority 198
Anne K. Mellor • Choosing a Text of Frankenstein to Teach 204

RECEPTION, IMPACT, ADAPTATION
Percy Bysshe Shelley • On Frankenstein 213
[John Croker] • From the Quarterly Review (January 1818) 215
Sir Walter Scott • From Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (March 1818) 219
Edinburgh Magazine • [On Frankenstein] (March 1818) 231
Gentleman's Magazine • [On Frankenstein] (April 1818) 237
Knight's Quarterly • [On Frankenstein] (August–November 1824) 238
Hugh Reginald Haweis • Introduction to the Routledge World Library Edition (1886) 241
Chris Baldick • [The Reception of Frankenstein] 242
William St. Clair • [Frankenstein’s Impact] 248
Susan Tyler Hitchcock • [The Monster Lives On] 263
Elizabeth Young • [Frankenstein as Historical Metaphor] 270
David Pirie • Approaches to Frankenstein [in Film] 276

Sources, Influences, Analogues
The Book of Genesis • [Biblical Account of Creation] 289
John Milton • From Paradise Lost 290
Percy Bysshe Shelley • Mont Blanc (1816) 295
  • [The Sea of Ice] (1817) 299
  • Mutability 300
George Gordon, Lord Byron • Prometheus 301
  • Darkness 303
  • From Childe Harold’s Pilgrimage, Canto III (1816) 305
Charles Lamb • The Old Familiar Faces 306

Criticism
George Levine • Frankenstein and the Tradition of Realism 311
Ellen Moers • Female Gothic: The Monster’s Mother 317
Sandra M. Gilbert and Susan Gubar • Mary Shelley’s Monstrous Eve 328
Mary Poovey • “My Hideous Progeny”: The Lady and the Monster 344
Anne K. Mellor • Possessing Nature: The Female in Frankenstein 355
Peter Brooks • What Is a Monster? (According to Frankenstein) 368
Bette London • Mary Shelley, Frankenstein, and the Spectacle of Masculinity 391
Marilyn Butler • Frankenstein and Radical Science 404
Lawrence Lipking • Frankenstein, the True Story; or, Rousseau Judges Jean-Jacques 416
Garrett Stewart • In the Absence of Audience: Of Reading and Dread in Mary Shelley 434
James A. W. Heffernan • Looking at the Monster: Frankenstein and Film 444
Patrick Brantlinger • The Reading Monster 468
Jonathan Bate • [Frankenstein and the State of Nature] 476
Anne K. Mellor • Frankenstein, Racial Science, and the Yellow Peril 481
Jane Goodall • Electrical Romanticism 490
Christa Knellwolf • Geographic Boundaries and Inner Space: Frankenstein, Scientific Exploration, and the Quest for the Absolute 506

Mary Shelley: A Chronology 521
Selected Bibliography 523