CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Writing Across the Borders 1
   Mark P. Bruce and Katherine H. Terrell

1. The Borderlands of Satire: Linked, Opposed, and Exchanged Political Poetry During the Scottish and English Wars of the Early Fourteenth Century 15
   Andrew Galloway

2. Sovereign Exception: Pre-National Consolidation in The Taill of Rauf Coilyear 33
   Randy P. Schiff

3. Friend or Foe? Negotiating the Anglo-Scottish Border in Sir Thomas Gray’s Scalacronica and Richard Holland’s Buke of the Howlat 51
   Kate Ash

4. Anglo-Scottish Relations in John Hardyng’s Chronicle 69
   Sarah L. Peverley

   Joanna Martin

6. The Border Writes Back 103
   Richard Firth Green

7. Passing the Book: The Scottish Shaping of Chaucer’s Dream States in Bodleian Library, MS Arch. Selden. B.24 121
   Kylie Murray

8. Lydgate Manuscripts and Prints in Late Medieval Scotland 141
   W. H. E. Sweet
   R. James Goldstein

10. "Rois Red and Quhit, Resplendent of Colour": Margaret Tudor and Scotland's Floricultural Future in William Dunbar's Poetry  181
    Chelsea Honeyman

11. The Scottish Identity of Gavin Douglas  195
    Nicola Royan

Afterword: Eisd O Eisd  211
    Aranye Fradenburg

Contributors  225

Index  229