Class and the Making of American Literature
Created Unequal

Edited by Andrew Lawson
Contents

List of Figures
xi

Introduction
ANDREW LAWSON
1

PART I
Class in Early American Literature

1 The Shays Rebellion in Literary History
ED WHITE
25

2 The Secret Witness: Thinking, and Not Thinking, about Servants in the Early American Novel
MATTHEW PETHERS
40

PART II
Class in the Antebellum Period

3 Cheap Reading and the Rise of Proletarian Print Culture
DAVID M. STEWART
59

4 The City Sketch: Writing Middle-Class Identity on the Streets of Antebellum New York
JOHN EVELEV
79

5 Materializing Identification: Theorizing Class Identification in Nineteenth-Century Literary Texts
LORI MERISH
94
PART III
Class in the Gilded Age and the Progressive Period

6 Cultures of Class in the Gilded Age Labor Problem Novel 113
LARRY W. ISAAC

7 "A Question of Meum and Tuum": The Civilization of the Commodity and the Maintenance of Inequality in Charles Chesnutt's The Conjure Woman and The Marrow of Tradition 130
TIM LIBRETTI

8 Edith Wharton, Insider Information, and the "Inherited Obligations" of Class 147
PETER KNIGHT

PART IV
Class in the Early to Mid-Twentieth Century

9 From Class Imaginary to Cultural Revolution in Willa Cather 165
ROBERT SEGUIN

10 Class Passing in the Fiction of the Great Depression: Breaking Boundaries through Fashion 179
JAN GOGGANS

11 Broken Frames: The World War II Novel and the Legibility of Class in the U.S. Historical Imagination 197
CHRIS VIALS

PART V
Class in Contemporary American Literature

12 The Future as Form: Undoing the Categorical Separation of Class and Gender in Ana Castillo's Sapogonia 215
MARCIAL GONZÁLEZ
13 A Killing Greed: Capitalism, Casinos, and Violence in Contemporary Native American Literature 229
MELANIE BENSON TAYLOR

14 “Not/One”: The Poetics of the Multitude in Great Recession-Era America 245
MARGARET RONDA

PART VI
Teaching Class

15 Teaching U.S. Working Class Literature; or, Firing the Canon 265
BILL V. MULLEN

Contributors 281
Index 285