Contents

Abbreviations and Short Titles ix

Introduction 3
Paul E. Szarmach

Old English Martyrology

1 Female Hagiography in the Old English Martyrology 13
Christine Rauer

2 Bodies of Land: The Place of Gender in the Old English Martyrology 30
Jacqueline Stodnick

Form and Genre

3 Why Is Margaret's the Only Life in London, BL, Cotton MS Tiberius A.iii? 55
Tracey-Anne Cooper

4 Æthelgifu’s Will as Hagiography 82
Mary Louise Fellows

5 Assuming Virginity: Tradition and the Naked Narrative in Ælfric’s Homily on the Assumption of the Virgin 103
Rebecca Stephenson
Contents

6 Genre Trouble: Reading the Old English Vita of Saint Euphrosyne 121
   ROBIN NORRIS

7 More Genre Trouble: The Life of Mary of Egypt 140
   PAUL E. SZARMACH

Mothers

8 "Nutrix pia": The Flowering of the Cult of St Æthelhryth in Anglo-Saxon England 167
   JOHN BLACK

9 The Kentish Queen as Omnium Mater: Goscelin of Saint-Bertin’s Lections and the Emergence of the Cult of Saint Seaxburh 191
   VIRGINIA BLANTON

Virgin Martyrs

10 Agnes among the Anglo-Saxons: Patristic Influences in Anglo-Latin and Anglo-Saxon Versions of the Passio of St Agnes, Virgin and Martyr 217
   RHONDA L. MCDANIEL

11 Heavenly Bodies: Paradoxes of Female Martyrdom in Ælfric’s Lives of Saints 249
   RENNÉE R. TRILLING

12 “Torture me, rend me, burn me, kill me!” Goscelin of Saint-Bertin and the Depiction of Female Sanctity 274
   ROSALIND LOVE

Bibliography 307

Contributors 341

Index 345