Magical Transformations on the Early Modern English Stage

Edited by

LISA HOPKINS
Sheffield Hallam University, UK

and

HELEN OSTOVICH
McMaster University, Canada

ASHGATE
Contents

Notes on Contributors
vii

Acknowledgements
xi

Introduction: Transformations and the Ideology of Witchcraft Staged
Helen Ostovich and Lisa Hopkins
1

PART I DEMONS AND PACTS

1. Magic and the Decline of Demons: A View from the Stage
   Barbara H. Traister
   19

2. Who the Devil is in Charge? Mastery and the Faustian Pact on the Early Modern Stage
   Bronwyn Johnston
   31

3. Danger in Words: Faustus, Slade, and the Demonologists
   Laura Levine
   47

PART II RITES TO BELIEVE

4. ‘The Charm’s Wound Up’: Supernatural Ritual in Macbeth
   Alisa Manninen
   61

5. Demonising Macbeth
   Verena Theile
   75

6. Hermetic Miracles in The Winter’s Tale
   Jill Delsigne
   91

PART III LEARNED MAGIC

7. ‘We ring this round with our invoking spells’: Magic as Embedded Authorship in The Merry Devil of Edmonton
   Peter Kirwan
   111

   Jasmine Lellock
   123
PART IV LOCAL WITCHCRAFT

10 Three Wax Images, Two Italian Gentlemen, and One English Queen
   Brett D. Hirsch 155

11 'In good reporte and honest estimacion amongst her neighbours':
   Cunning Women in the Star Chamber and on the Stage in Early Modern England
   Judith Bonzol 169

12 'A witch, a quean, an old cozening quean!': Image Magic and Shakespeare's The Merry Wives of Windsor
   Jessica Dell 185

13 'Gingerbread Progeny' in Bartholomew Fair
   Helen Ostovich 203

14 'My poor fiddle is bewitched': Music, Magic, and the Theatre in
   The Witch of Edmonton and The Late Lancashire Witches
   Andrew Loeb 215

Bibliography 233
Index 255