Werner Delanoy / Maria Eisenmann / Frauke Matz (eds.)

Learning with Literature in the EFL Classroom
Table of Contents

Introduction: Learning with Literature in the EFL Classroom .............................................7
Werner Delanoy, Maria Eisenmann & Frauke Matz

Part 1: Theories of Literature Teaching

Literature Teaching and Learning: Theory and Practice ....................................................... 19
Werner Delanoy

Literary Literacy and Intercultural Competence: Furthering Students' Knowledge, Skills and Attitudes .............................................................. 49
Laurenz Volkmann

Part 2: Literature Learning at Primary Level

A Picture (Book) is Worth a Thousand Words: Picture Books in the EFL Primary Classroom ........................................................................ 69
Margit Hempel

Performing Poems in the Primary School ........................................................................... 85
Janice Bland

Part 3: Literature Learning at Intermediate Level

Poetry in the Intermediate EFL Classroom .......................................................................... 103
Carsten Albers

Teaching Young Adult Fiction .............................................................................................. 121
Frauke Matz & Anne Stieger

Playful Learning with ShorkPlays ......................................................................................... 141
Carola Surkamp
Table of Contents

Part 4: Literature Learning at Higher Level

Teaching Narrative Competence: American Short Stories in the EFL Classroom ................................................................. 159
Peter Freese

Why Read a Shakespeare Play in Class? ................................................................. 181
Rüdiger Ahrens

The American Dream: New Approaches to an Old Topic ................................. 195
Peter Freese

Crossovers – Postcolonial Literature and Transcultural Learning .................. 217
Maria Eisenmann

Opportunities and Challenges for Transcultural Learning and Global Education via Literature .................................................. 237
Laurenz Volkmann

Alternative Worlds – Alternative Texts: Teaching (Youn Adult) Dystopian Novels ................................................................. 263
Frauke Matz

Part 5: New Approaches and Future Perspectives for Literature Learning

Teaching Multimodal Novels .............................................................................. 283
Wolfgang Hallet

Narrating the ‘Truth’: Using Autographics in the EFL Classroom ................. 299
Christian Ludwig

Performative Approaches and Innovative Methods ........................................... 321
Nancy Grimm & Julia Hammer

Approaches to Plurilingual Literature Teaching in the EFL Classroom ........ 341
Gabriele Blell

Teaching Games – Video Games in Educational Contexts ............................ 367
René Schallegger

List of Contributors .......................................................................................... 393