DEVELOPMENT OF DEMOCRACY

Experience in the Baltic States and Taiwan

Proceedings and Materials of the International Conference on 21–22 August 2006, in Riga, Latvia
CONTENTS

Foreword by Tālavs Jundzis ................................................................. 19
Opening address by Juris Ekmanis .................................................. 23
Opening remarks by Wen-cheng Lin .............................................. 25
Address by Vaira Pāegle ................................................................. 28
Address by Girts Valdis Kristovskis .............................................. 31
Address by Matthew S. Lee .......................................................... 35
Address by Ivars Godmanis .......................................................... 37

I. From the Totalitarian (Autoritarian) Regime to a Democratic and Law-based State: the Non-violent Way

Experience of Creating Democracy in Germany
after World War II

Detlef Henning ................................................................. 45

Role of Non-Violent Resistance in the Renewal of Independence and Establishment of a Democratic Regime in Latvia

Tālavs Jundzis ................................................................. 52

Forms of the Non-Violent Resistance in Latvia from 1944 to 1985

Heinrihs Strods ................................................................. 71

Resistance of National Communists against the Totalitarian Regime in Latvia in the 1950’s

Jānis Riekstiņš ................................................................. 87

Role of Informal Non-governmental Organizations at the Initial Stage of the Renewal of Independence of Latvia
(during the Third Awakening Period 1986–1989)

Valdis Blūzma ................................................................. 98

Role of the Western Baltic people in Building Democracy in the Baltic States

Ojārs Celle ................................................................. 118

The Role of Non-violent Resistance in Proclaiming Independence of Estonia

Heiko Pääbo ................................................................. 126

Resistance, Justice, and Re-establishment of the Independent State of Lithuania

Arvydas Anušauskas .......................................................... 137
II. Problems and Solutions of the Development of Democracy

Taiwan's Constitutional Reform and Cross-strait Relations

Wen-cheng Lin .................................................. 151

Changing Institutional Contexts and the Administrative Reform in Taiwan

Chyi-Lu Jang ...................................................... 168

Imagining Taiwan's Democratic Future: Creating a "Social Miracle" through Public Participation

Soong Jenn-jaw, Wei Mei-chuan .................................. 186

Legality and the Rule of Law in Consolidating Democracies: Experience of Taiwan

Hsiao Wen-Sheng, Tsai Chang-Yen .................................. 214

Sense of Place among Latvians and Taiwanese

Aivars Tabuns ..................................................... 229

Political Loyalty and Geographic Identity in Latvia and in Taiwan

Dmitrijs Boldovskis .................................................. 255

Quality of Democracy in Lithuania

Algimantas Jankauskas .............................................. 262

Internal and External Security Relations: Lithuanian Experience

Algirdas Gricius ...................................................... 269

Topical Problems of Human Rights in Latvia

Liga Biksiniece ...................................................... 280

Are We Satisfied with the Saeima Election System?

Valdis Liepiņš ...................................................... 286

Mass Media in Latvia: The Weak Link of Democracy and National Cohesion?

Juris Dreifelds ..................................................... 292