Global Perspectives in Early Childhood Education
Diversity, Challenges and Possibilities
Content

Global Perspectives in Early Childhood Education: Diversity, Challenges and Possibilities .............................................. 9

SECTION A

DEVELOPMENT OF EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Eeva Hujala, Anneli Niikko
The Science of Early Childhood Education – Core Ideas ............................................ 21

Eve Kikas, Marja-Kristiina Lerkkanen
Education in Estonia and Finland .............................................................................. 33

Ulla Härkönen
The Process of Creating the Pedagogical Systems
Theory for Early Childhood and Preschool Education............................................ 47

James E. Johnson, Jennifer Chestnut Pyles
ECE in the USA: Focus on the State-Funded Pre-K Movement ......................... 67

Mare Torm
170 Years of Development in Estonian Preschool Institutions:
Historical Trends in Preschool Education ............................................................ 81

Marika Veisson, Paul Kees, Taimi Tulva, And Maie Vikat
Development of the Field of Preschool Education in Tallinn University ...................... 105

Sigrun Sand
Early Childhood Education in a Multicultural Norway ........................................ 125

Jarmo Kinos
Early Childhood Education in Finland – History, the Present and a Little Part of the Future .............................................................................. 141

Airi Liimets
What “Gifts” Could Good Beginnings Have in Education
Interpreted as a Difference? .............................................................................. 153
SECTION B

CHILDREN’S DEVELOPING SKILLS AND THE EARLY CHILDHOOD CURRICULUM

Tiiu Tammemäe
The Development of Speech of Estonian Children Aged 2–4 Years and Its Connections with Environmental Factors where the Child is Growing Up ................................................................. 165

Kristina Nugin, Marika Veisson
The Intellectual Development of 3–6-Year-Old Children in Different Child Rearing Environments in Estonia ..................................................... 183

Mairi Männamaa, Eve Kikas
Developing a Test Battery for Assessing 6- and 7-Year-Old Children’s Cognitive Skills ................................................................. 203

Piret Soodla, Eve Kikas
Oral Narratives of 6–7 Years Old Estonian Children ..................................................... 217

Marja-Kristiina Lerkkanen, Timo Ahonen, Anna-Maija Poikkeus
The Development of Reading Skills and Motivation and Identification of Risk at School Entry ................................................................. 237

Peter K Smith
Children’s Play: Essential for Development, Surplus Energy, or Something in Between? ................................................................. 259

Anneli Niikko, Aino Ugaste
A Comparative Perspective on the Early Years’ Curricula in Finland and Estonia ................................................................. 283
SECTION C

THE ROLE OF EARLY CHILDHOOD TEACHERS

Manjula Waniganayake
   Early Childhood Leadership at Crossroads:
   Current Concerns and Future Directions ........................................ 297

Helena Rasku-Puttonen, Eija Pakarinen, Kaili Trossmann,
Marja-Kristiina Lerkkanen, Eve Kikas, Anna-Maija Poikkeus
   Classroom Practices in Finnish and Estonian Preschools:
   Subgroups of Observed Teaching Practices ..................................... 313

Kaili Trossmann, Eve Kikas
   Observations of Kindergarten Classroom Practices:
   Estonian Results .............................................................................. 333

Marika Veisson, Kerstin Kööp, Kristina Nugin
   Appraisal of Preschool Teacher Education Preparation by Students About Their Studies in Estonia and Finland ..................... 351

SECTION D

THE ROLE OF PARENTS IN EARLY CHILDHOOD SETTINGS

Marika Veisson, Silvi Suur
   Estonian Preschool Teachers’ Vision about Cooperation with Parents ..................................................................................... 367

Pirjo-Liisa Poikonen, Marita Kontoniemi
   Mutual Trust between Finnish Parents and Preschool Teachers ............. 383

Tiia Ōun, Anu Sarap
   Involving the Board of Parents in the Management of Pre-School Childcare Institutions ............................................... 399

Kerstin Kööp
   Children’s Transition from Kindergarten to School in Estonia -- the Parental Viewpoint ..................................................................... 413
Johanna Einarsdottir
Children’s and Parent’s Views on Playschool Education in Iceland .......... 427

SECTION E

SPECIAL NEEDS IN EARLY YEARS SETTINGS

Jarmo Kinos, Sirkku Kinos, Reetta Niemelä
Developing a School Operational Culture and Improving Student
Wellbeing: the Literature Project at the C. O. Malm School ..................... 439

Claire P. Monks, Peter K. Smith
Bullying, Aggression and Victimization in Young Children:
Measurement, Nature and Prevention...................................................... 457

About the Authors................................................................................. 475