Airi Liimets / Marika Veisson (eds.)

Teachers and Youth in Educational Reality
Contents

Airi Liimets
Introduction or How does the current book reflect on the concept of being a teacher................................................................. 7

Krista Loogma
Conceptualizing Teachers’ Professionalism: the Case of Estonian Lower Secondary Teachers................................................................. 11

Madis Lepik, Kirsti Kislcnko
Estonian Mathematics Teachers’ Beliefs about Teaching and Their Self-Reported Practices................................................................. 23

Tuuli Oder
Teachers’ Beliefs Regarding Effective Teaching: the Cornerstone of Curriculum Reform ................................................................. 43

Katrin Poom-Valickis, Tuuli Oder, Kirsti Kislcnko, Leida Talts, Tiina Elvisto, Madis Lepik
Teachers’ Beliefs Regarding their Professional Role ............................................. 61

Monica Sakk
Teachers’ Beliefs about How Students Cope at School........................................ 81

Tiia Õun, Kristina Nugin, Marika Veisson, Maire Tuul, Tiia Leppik
The Quality of the Learning Environment in Estonian Preschools .................. 103

Tiina Peterson, Marika Veisson, Eeva Hujala, Anette Sandberg, Inge Johansson
The Influence of Leadership on the Professionalism of Preschool Teachers in Estonia, Sweden and Finland........................................... 119
Airi Liimets
How do we define youth or what does the development of the concept of youth tell us? .......................................................... 143

Lilian Reinmets
On Creativity in Relation to the Social Field ............................................. 163

Airi Liimets, Kristina Iotsaite
Paideia and ‘Lifestyle’ – On Wholeness-Centered Educational Thinking in Ancient Greece and in Estonia ............................................. 183

Authors ..................................................................................................... 199