Table of Contents

Preface

PART A  RECORDING

Chapter 1  Introduction ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 1
(with 10 exercises, including 1 by R.R.K. Hartmann)

Chapter 2  Where to obtain information about words 16
(with 10 exercises, including 2 by N.E. Osselton)

Chapter 3  Content: the corpus ... ... ... ... ... 32
(with 10 exercises)

Chapter 4  Content: kinds of information ... ... 41
(with 10 exercises)

Chapter 5  How the lexicographer records his data 55
(with 10 exercises, including 2 by H. Béjoint and 1 by W.J.R. Martin)

PART B  DESCRIPTION

Chapter 6  Describing the meaning of words ... ... 65
(with 10 exercises)

Chapter 7  Illustrating usage; description of nouns 75
(with 10 exercises, including 4 by Lesley Jeffries
and A.P. Cowie)

Chapter 8  Description of verbs ... ... ... ... ... ... 87
(with 10 exercises, including 1 by L. Jeffries
and A.P. Cowie)

Chapter 9  Description of adjectives and adverbs ... 95
(with 10 exercises)

Chapter 10  Description of function words and multi-word lexical units ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 103
(with 10 exercises)

Chapter 11  Shapes, sounds, and forms of words ... 117
(with 10 exercises)

Chapter 12  Information on the history of words ... 131
(with 10 exercises)

Chapter 13  Coverage of usage ... ... ... ... ... ... 140
(with 10 exercises, including 2 by R.R.K. Hartmann)
PART C PRESENTATION

Chapter 14 Preparation of the dictionary material (with 10 exercises) 153

Chapter 15 The dictionary of the future: computer applications (with 10 exercises) 161

PART D GLOSSARY OF ENGLISH LEXICOGRAPHICAL TERMS, A-Z 173

PART E BIBLIOGRAPHY

I Sources quoted in the Glossary 189
II Dictionaries 208
III Other references 212