Contents

Acknowledgements
Preface
Introduction
  Object of Study
  Background of the Study
  Organization of the Study
  Notes

Part I
The Analytical Framework for Prostitution

1  Prostitution, Social Theory and Politics
   Introduction
   Defining Prostitution
   Sociobiology and Prostitution: Phallocracy and One-dimensional Sex
   Functionalism and Prostitution: The Dilemma of Rationality
   Historical Materialism, Socialism and Prostitution: Alienation and Lumpen-Proletariat
   Structuralism and The Exchange of Women: From Phallus to Brain
   Prostitution and Feminist Politics of Social Change: From Victimization to Glorification
   Conclusion
   Notes
2 Sexual Labour in Prostitution

Introduction 57
Reproduction and the Structure of Gender Relations 57
Sexuality and Sexual Labour 67
Sexual Labour, Sexual Consciousness and the Transition to Capitalism 75
Reproduction, Sexual Labour and Social Control 79
Prostitution, Traffic in Women and International Sexual Politics: the Contradiction Between Race and Class 82
Power Relations in Prostitution 87
Conclusion 91
Notes 91

Part II

International Tourism and Prostitution in Southeast Asia 93

3 The Political Economy of International Tourism 95
Introduction 95
Leisure and Production 95
Air Travel and Tourism: Genesis of an Industrial Complex 101
The Travel and Tourism Conglomerates and Developing Countries 110
Tourism and Development: the Politics of a Development Strategy 116
Serving the Tourist Market: Female Labour in Tourism 123
Conclusion 129
Notes 129

4 Gender Relations and Prostitution in Thailand 131
Introduction 131
Buddhist Discourse on Sexuality and the Male–Female Relationship 131
Buddhism, Law and Gender in Feudal Thailand 138
Polygamy and Prostitution under Democratic Law 149
Conclusion 156
Notes 157

5 Foreign Exchange, Tourism and Prostitution in Thailand 158
Introduction 158
Tourism as an Export-led Growth Strategy in Thailand 158