Contents

Introduction: Bruce T. Moran

Paula Findlen: The Economy of Scientific Exchange in Early Modern Italy

William Eamon: Court, Academy, and Printing House: Patronage and Scientific Careers in Late-Renaissance Italy

W. R. Laird: Patronage of Mechanics and Theories of Impact in Sixteenth-Century Italy

Lesley B. Cormack: Twisting the Lion’s Tale: Practice and Theory at the Court of Henry Prince of Wales

Jole Shackelford: Paracelsianism and Patronage in Early Modern Denmark

Harold J. Cook: Living in Revolutionary Times: Medical Change under William and Mary

William Ashworth: The Habsburg Circle

Bruce T. Moran: Patronage and Institutions: Courts, Universities, and Academies in Germany; an Overview 1550-1750

David S. Lux: The Reorganization of Science 1450 – 1700

Pamela H. Smith: Curing the Body Politic: Chemistry and Commerce at Court, 1664-70

Alice Stroup: The Political Theory and Practice of Technology under Louis XIV

A. J. G. Cummings and Larry Stewart: The Case of the Eighteenth-Century Projector: Entrepreneurs, Engineers, and Legitimacy at the Hanoverian Court in Britain