Contents

Introduction 8

Nineteenth Century Feminism and the Separation of Spheres: Reflections on the Public/Private Dichotomy
   Jane Rendall 17

Patronesses, Gentlewomen, Feminists—and Common Wives. Political Gender and Class Systems in Tampere during the Period of Industrialization
   Aino Saarinen 38

Women’s Culture and the Continuity of the Women’s Movement
   Leila Rupp and Verta Taylor 68

Christian and Competent Schoolmistresses: Women’s Culture at the Aarhus Training College for Women Teachers 1909-1950
   Hanne Rimmen Nielsen 90

Spinsters and Families: How Unmarried, Philanthropic Women Taught the Working Class in Copenhagen to Live in Nuclear Families, 1877-1927
   Karin Lützen 124

Women’s Ideology: Difference, Equality or a New Femininity. Women Teachers and Nurses in Norway 1912-1940
   Kari Melby 138

Women in the New Peace Movement in Denmark: Empowerment and Political Identity
   Ann-Dorte Christensen 155

A Distaste of Dirty Hands: Gender and Politics in Second-Wave Feminism
   Joyce Outshoorn 175

The Gender System
   Yvonne Hirdman 187
Researching the Women’s Movement. Considerations Arising out of a Comparative Study of the New Women’s Movement in Finland and the Federal Republic of Germany

Solveig Bergman  208

Contributors   221

The Women’s Movement Project  224