

Summary Table of Contents

Introduction	1
by Eberhard Grabitz and Armin von Bogdandy

Part 1: Legal and Political Conditions Determining United States Foreign Trade Regulation

I. The Political System Governing Foreign Trade in the United States	7
by Jeannette Schüller
A. Constitutional Framework and Political Process	7
B. History of Foreign Trade Policy	35
II. The Political and Legal System Governing the Use of Government Expenditures to Promote Domestic Production	49
by Gillian Dell
A. Constitutional Framework and Political Process	49
B. History of Government Benefits to Domestic Industry	58
III. The International Trade Law	73
by Armin von Bogdandy
A. The International Framework Provided by the GATT and Associated Treaties	74
B. Other Sources of International Economic Law	102

Part 2: Regular Organization of United States Foreign Trade

by Gesine Schmidt and Olaf Jansen

I. Tariff Protection	108
A. Tariff Structure	109
B. Assessment of Duties	132
II. Import Regulation	155
A. Customs Clearing Process	155
B. Performance Requirements	176

Part 3: Unfair Trade Practices

by Martin Nettesheim

I. The Concept of Unfair Trade Laws	185
A. Introduction	185
B. U.S. Unfair Trade Law: Establishment of a Market Standard	188
C. The Misuse of the Unfair Trade Category	205
D. Ramifications for the Future	209
II. Antidumping Law	211
A. History	211
B. Administration of Antidumping Laws	217
C. Antidumping Laws as a Disguised Safeguard Clause	241

Summary Table of Contents

D. Implications of Antidumping as Safeguard	258
E. Conclusion	278
III. Countervailing Duty Laws	279
A. Introduction	279
B. History	279
C. Administration of the Countervailing Duty Laws	283
D. Countervailing Duty Laws as Genuine Unfair Trade Laws	298
E. Conclusion	324
IV. Sec. 337 of the Trade Act of 1930: Unfair Methods of Competition	325
A. Introduction	325
B. Background	325
C. Administration of Sec. 337	329
D. Sec. 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 and the GATT	339
E. Conclusion	351
V. Sec. 301 of the Trade Act of 1974: Response to Unfair Foreign Trade Practices	353
A. Introduction	353
B. History	353
C. Administration of Sec. 301 of the Trade Act of 1974	360
D. Retaliation within the International Trading System: Possibilities and Limitations	373
E. Conclusion

Part 4: Fair Trade Remedies

I. Underlying Policy of Fair Trade Remedies	407
by Jeannette Schüler and Heike Thomas
A. Fair Trade	407
B. Relation of Safeguard Measures to Voluntary Export Restraints	408
C. Safeguards and Escape Clauses	409
II. Safeguard Measures	411
by Heike Thomas
A. Increased Import Competition - Section 201 of the Trade Act of 1974	411
B. Market Disruption by Imports from Communist Countries - Section 406 of the Trade Act of 1974	429
C. Import Restrictions to Safeguard Agricultural Commodity Programs	440
III. Escape Clause	449
by Heike Thomas
A. National Security Import Restrictions - Section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962	449
B. Balance-of-Payments Measures - Section 122 of the Trade Act of 1974 -	456
IV. Voluntary Export Restraints	463
by Jeannette Schüler
A. Introduction	463
B. Voluntary Export Restraints in United States Trade Policy	464

Summary Table of Contents

D. Voluntary Export Restraints as Legal Instruments of New Protectionism	497
C. Legal Aspects and Implications of Voluntary Export Restraints	478

Part 5: Indirect Restrictions on Foreign Trade

by Gillian Dell

I. Government Procurement	503
A. International Framework	503
B. System of Express Preferences and Prohibitions in Procurement	506
C. The System of Procurement Procedure	534
D. Conclusion	551
II. Subsidies	555
A. The International Framework	557
B. Export Subsidies in the United States	576
C. Domestic Subsidies in the United States	623
D. Overall Evaluation of U.S. Subsidies	655
E. Conclusion	657
Bibliographies	659

Analytical Table of Contents

Introduction	1
by Eberhard Grabitz and Armin von Bogdandy

Part 1: Legal and Political Conditions Determining United States Foreign Trade Regulation

I. The Political System Governing Foreign Trade in the United States	7
by Jeannette Schüller
A. Constitutional Framework and Political Process	7
1. The Principles of "Separation of Powers" and "Checks and Balances"	7
2. Allocation of Powers in Foreign Trade Affairs	8
a. Powers of Congress	8
b. The President's Powers	9
1) Inherent Powers
a) Foreign Affairs	9
b) International Trade Relations	10
2) Powers Delegated by Congress	12
a) Tariff Policy	12
b) The Delegated Powers	14
aa) Tariff Authority	14
bb) Tariff and Trade Agreements Authority	15
cc) The Negotiation of Non-Tariff Barriers	19
dd) The Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988	22
c) GATT Disputes	25
d) The Constitutionality of the Delegation of Legislative Powers to the President	25
aa) The Non-Delegation Doctrine of the Supreme Court	26
bb) Decisions by Other Courts	28
e) Congressional Veto	29
3. Administering Authorities	30
a. The Office of the United States Trade Representative	31
b. Department of Commerce	32
c. The United States International Trade Commission	33
4. Judicial Review	33
B. History of Foreign Trade Policy	35
1. Tariff Policy and National Welfare	36
2. The Evolution of the Tariffs up to the Hawley-Smoot Tariff Act of 1930	38
3. A Period of Reciprocal Trade Liberalism	40
4. United States Trade Policy under the GATT System	42
5. The Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988	47

Analytical Table of Contents

II. The Political and Legal System Governing the Use of Government Expenditures to Promote Domestic Production by Gillian Dell	49
A. Constitutional Framework and Political Process	49
1. Constitutional Allocation of Powers in Determining Government Expenditures	49
a. The Powers of Congress	49
1) The Taxation and Spending Powers	49
2) The Power of the Purse	50
3) The Property Power	50
4) Other Powers	50
b. Powers of the Executive Branch	51
2. Delegations, Authorizations and Appropriations by Congress	51
a. Delegation of the Power to Collect Taxes	51
b. Authorization and Appropriation of Expenditures	51
1) Authorization of Expenditures	51
2) Appropriation of Expenditures	52
c. Delegation of the Power to Dispose of and Regulation of the Administration of Government Property	53
3. The Budget and Legislative Process	53
a. The President	53
b. Congress	54
4. Administrative Process and Procedure	55
5. Administering Authorities	55
a. Department of Defense	55
b. Department of Agriculture	56
c. Other Agencies	57
B. History of Government Benefits to Domestic Industry	58
1. Period of Minimal Government Intervention: Pre-Depression	59
2. Engineering Economic Recovery and the War Effort: the Great Depression and World War II	61
3. Period of U.S. Competitive Strength: 1950's and 1960's	63
4. The Oil Crisis and Decline in U.S. Competitiveness: the 1970's	66
5. The Competitiveness Crisis: the 1980's	67
6. U.S. Policy in the Multilateral Context	69
III. The International Trade Law by Armin von Bogdandy	73
A. The International Framework Provided by the GATT and Associated Treaties	74
1. History	74
a. The Beginnings of the GATT World Trade Order	74
b. Later Amendments	75
2. The System of the GATT	77
a. The GATT as Binding Law	77
1) Binding Quality of the GATT 1948	77

Analytical Table of Contents

2) Binding Quality of the Later Amendments	77
b. Methodological Aspects	80
c. The GATT System	81
1) Concepts of Trade	81
2) The Keys to the GATT	82
3) The Normative Architecture of the GATT	84
a) The Basic Principle	84
b) GATT Obligations in Favor of Non-Discriminated Trade	84
aa) Obligations Directly Applicable to Trade Distorting Measures	84
bb) Complementary Obligations	86
cc) Obligations to Take Political Action	87
c) Further Determination of GATT Obligations	88
4) The Exceptions	89
a) Exceptions to Enforce GATT Obligations	89
b) Exceptions Promoting Further Liberalization in International Trade	90
c) Exceptions to Secure Competition	91
d) Exceptions Permitting Measures in Solely National Interest	91
aa) Escape Clause	92
bb) Safeguard Clause	94
d. General Aspects of GATT Obligations	96
1) The Most Favored Nation Clause	97
2) National Treatment	98
3) General Elimination of Quantitative Restrictions	99
4) The GATT Concept of Trade	100
B. Other Sources of International Economic Law	102
1. The Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development	102
2. United Nations Conference on Trade and Development	103
3. Other Organizations or Treaties	103
4. Customary Law	104

Part 2: Regular Organization of United States Foreign Trade

by Gesine Schmidt and Olaf Jansen

I. Tariff Protection	108
A. Tariff Structure	109
1. Statutory Rates	112
a. Economic Effects	111
b. Application of Statutory Tariffs	112
1) Non Performance in Making Trade and Tariff Concessions	113
2) Retaliation against Foreign Suspension of Obligation under International Trade Agreements	113
3) United States Suspension of its International Obligations	114

Analytical Table of Contents

4) United States Termination or Withdrawal from International Trade Agreements	115
2. Most-Favored-Nation Rates	115
a. Industry Sectors Protected by High Tariff Rates	116
b. Domestic Legal Background	117
1) 1930 - 1962	118
2) 1962 - 1974	119
3) 1974 - 1988	119
c. United States Approach to International Tariff Reductions	120
1) The Item-by-Item Approach	120
2) The Linear Approach	121
3. Preferential Rates	123
a. Current Programs Providing for Special Tariff Treatment	123
1) Generalized System of Eligible Countries	123
a) Designation of Eligible Countries	124
b) Designation of Eligible Articles	125
c) Withdrawal of Eligibility	125
2) Caribbean Basin Initiative	126
a) Designation of Eligible Countries	127
b) Designation of Eligible Articles	127
3) U.S.-Israel Free Trade Area	128
4) Canada-U.S. Free Trade Agreement	129
a) Tariff Elimination	129
b) Emergency Actions	129
b. Compliance with GATT Obligations	130
1) Compliance of the U.S. GSP with GATT	130
a) Non-Discrimination	131
b) Non-Reciprocal Treatment	131
2) Free Trade Areas	132
B. Assessment of Duties	132
1. Tariff Classification	133
a. Background and Framework of the U.S. Tariff System	134
1) The Tariff Schedules of the U.S.	134
2) The Harmonized System	134
2. Rules of Origin	136
a. Rules of Origin Applying to Preference Systems	137
1) Rules of Origin under the Generalized System of Preferences	137
2) Rules of Origin under the Caribbean Basin Initiative	139
3) Rules of Origin under the Free Trade Agreements	139
b. Rules of Origin applying to Textiles and Steel	140
1) Rules of Origin for Textiles	140
2) Rules of Origin for Steel	142
3. Appraisal of Merchandise	143
a. Historical Background	143
1) Main Non-Tariff Barriers prior to 1979	143

Analytical Table of Contents

2) The Tokyo Round Valuation Code	144
b. Valuation Standards	146
1) Transaction Value	146
2) Alternative Methods of Valuation	149
4. Protest and Judicial Review	152
II. Import Regulation	155
A. Customs Clearing Process	155
1. Entry Documentation	156
a. Right to Make Entry	156
1) Entry by the Importer	156
2) Entry by Others	156
b. Regular Entry Documents	157
1) Invoices	157
a) Types of Invoices Required	158
b) Content of the Commercial Invoices	159
2) Other Documentation	162
c. Other Kinds of Entry	163
d. Mistakes in Entry Documentation	164
1) Amount of Penalties	164
2) Procedure	165
2. Examination Procedures	167
a. Inspection of Imported Merchandise	168
b. Inspection Criteria	168
c. Testing and Samples	169
1) Sampling and Testing by Customs Services	169
2) Sampling and Testing by Other Agencies	170
3. Release from Customs Custody	170
a. Procedure	170
1) Quota Class Merchandise	171
2) Immediate Release	171
b. Bonds and Estimated Duties	171
1) Bonds	172
2) Deposit of Estimated Duties	173
4. Liquidation	174
a. Extensions	174
b. Reliquidation	175
5. Costs of Customs Services	175
B. Performance Requirements	176
1. Country of Origin Marking	176
a. Regular Marking Requirements	177
1) General Marking Requirements	177
2) General Exceptions	178
b. Special Requirements	179
c. Protection against False Marking	180

Analytical Table of Contents

2. Packaging and Labelling	181
a. Packaging	181
b. Labelling	181

Part 3: Unfair Trade Practices

by Martin Nettesheim

I. The Concept of Unfair Trade Laws	185
A. Introduction	185
B. U.S. Unfair Trade Law: Establishment of a Market Standard	188
1. Methodology of the Examination	188
2. Unfairness as a Normative Judgement	190
3. The Origin of the Unfair Trade Category	190
4. The Structure of the Market Standard	192
a. Fair Trade - Unfair Trade	192
b. The Purpose of Unfair Trade Laws	194
1) Economic Element of Fair Trade: Efficiency	196
2) Equitable Element of Fair Trade: Equitable Treatment to all Competitors	198
a) Level Playing Field	199
b) Interface	200
3) Unfair Trade Laws as Security Valves	201
5. The GATT as a Limit and Measure	203
C. The Misuse of the Unfair Trade Category	205
D. Ramifications for the Future	209
II. Antidumping Law	211
A. History	211
B. Administration of Antidumping Laws	217
1. Substantive Elements of Antidumping Laws	219
a. Sales at Less Than Fair Value (Dumping)	219
1) Scope of Investigation	219
2) Calculation of Dumping Margins	221
a) Foreign Market Value	221
b) U.S. Price	227
b. Injury to a U.S. Industry	228
1) U.S. Industry	229
2) Injury	230
a) Material Injury	231
b) Threat of Material Injury	231
c) Material Retardation	232
3) Causation	232
2. Procedure	234
a. Initiation of an Administrative Proceeding	234
b. Collection of Information and Access to Data	235
c. Suspension of the Investigation	237

Analytical Table of Contents

d.	Antidumping Duty Order	237
e.	Administration Review	239
f.	Judicial Review	240
C.	Antidumping Laws as a Disguised Safeguard Clause	241
1.	Effects of Antidumping Laws	241
a.	Economic Preconditions to Price Discrimination	243
b.	Efficiency Arguments Against Dumping	243
1)	"Subsidization of Exports"	244
2)	Injury to Domestic Producers	246
3)	Predatory Dumping	248
c.	Equality Arguments Against Dumping	250
1)	Exploitation of an Artificial Advantage	250
2)	Interface Function	252
3)	Antidumping - Antitrust Laws	253
2.	Consequences	255
D.	Implications of Antidumping as Safeguard	258
1.	Abandonment of the Unfairness Label	258
2.	The Balance of Competing Interests	259
a.	The GATT as External Limitation	261
1)	Cost of Procedure	261
2)	Monitoring	263
3)	Scope of the Antidumping Order	264
a)	Technological Change	264
b)	Importation of Components and Parts	265
4)	Cumulation	269
b.	Future Steps De Lege Ferenda	271
1)	Political Discretion in Deciding Cases	271
2)	U.S. Interest Clause	273
a)	Competition Policy	274
b)	Consumer Interest	275
3)	Injury Duty Relationship	276
4)	Suspension Agreements	277
E.	Conclusion	278
III.	Countervailing Duty Laws	279
A.	Introduction	279
B.	History	279
C.	Administration of the Countervailing Duty Laws	283
1.	The Distinction Between Sec. 303 and Sec. 701 of the Tariff Act of 1930	283
2.	Subsidies	284
a.	Countervailing Benefit	285
b.	Preferential Treatment	287
1)	Export Subsidies	287
2)	Preferential Domestic Subsidies	289
3)	Practice of the Department of Commerce	292

Analytical Table of Contents

a)	Natural Resource Subsidies	292
b)	Research and Development Grants	293
c)	Regional Subsidies	294
d)	Agriculture	294
e)	Provision of Loans and Capital	295
4)	Measurement of the Amount of Subsidy	296
3.	Injury	297
4.	Procedure	297
D.	Countervailing Duty Laws as Genuine Unfair Trade Laws	398
1.	Subsidization as an Unfair Trade Practice	398
a.	The Purpose of U.S. Laws	299
b.	Efficiency Effects of Subsidies	301
1)	U.S. Domestic Welfare	301
2)	Overall Welfare	302
3)	U.S. Laws and Welfare Effects: The Specificity Test	303
c.	Equality of Competitive Conditions	307
d.	Consequences	311
2.	Problem Areas	313
a.	Injury Test and the Most Favored Nation Principle	313
b.	Developing Countries and the Most Favored Nation Principle	317
c.	Features of the Laws	320
1)	The Specificity Test	320
2)	Regional Subsidies	321
3)	De Minimis Threshold	322
4)	Countervailing Duty Laws and Voluntary Restraint Agreements	322
E.	Conclusion	324
IV.	Sec. 337 of the Trade Act of 1930: Unfair Methods of Competition	325
A.	Introduction	325
B.	Background	325
1.	History	325
2.	Sec. 337 and Amendments	326
C.	Administration of Sec. 337	329
1.	Trade in Goods, Services, or Investment	329
2.	Unfair Acts in the Importation or Sale of Imports	330
a.	Intellectual Property Rights	330
1)	Patents	331
2)	Copyrights	331
3)	Trademarks	332
4)	Semiconductor Maskwork	332
5)	U.S. Industry	333
b.	Other Unfair Methods of Competition	334
1)	Industry	335
2)	Injury or Prevention of Establishment	335

Analytical Table of Contents

c. Importation or Sale of Imports	335
d. Relation of Sec. 337 to Other Proceedings	335
3. Procedure	337
4. Remedies	338
D. Sec. 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 and the GATT	339
1. The GATT Framework	340
a. Art. III: (4)	340
1) The Scope of Art. III: (4)	340
2) The National Treatment Standard of Art. III: (4)	342
b. Art. XX (d) of the GATT	343
2. U.S. Intellectual Property Law	344
3. Antitrust Law	345
a. U.S. Antitrust Regulations	346
b. The Federal Trade Commission Act	346
c. Sec. 337 as Antitrust Law and the GATT Rules	347
1) Art. III: (4)	348
2) Art. XX (d)	350
E. Conclusion	351
V. Sec. 301 of the Trade Act of 1974: Response to Unfair Foreign Trade Practices	353
A. Introduction	353
B. History	354
C. Administration of Sec. 301 of the Trade Act of 1974	360
1. Substantive Requirements of Sec. 301	360
a. Trade in Goods, Services and Investments	360
b. Violation of the Fairness Standard Under Sec. 301	361
1) Mandatory Retaliation	361
a) Trade Agreement	362
b) Foreign Unfair Trade Practice	362
aa) Denial of Rights	362
bb) Denial of Benefits	362
cc) Unjustifiable Acts	363
c) Exceptions	364
2) Discretionary Retaliation	365
a) Unreasonable Acts	365
b) Discriminatory Acts	367
c) Burden or Restriction	367
2. Procedures Under Sec. 301	367
a. Initiation by Petition	367
b. Self-Initiation	368
1) Denial of Intellectual Property Protection	369
2) "Super 301"	369
c. Investigation of Foreign Trade Practices	370
3. Retaliation under Sec. 301	370
a. Deadlines	371

Analytical Table of Contents

b.	Scope of Authority	371
1)	Tailoring Retaliation	372
2)	Implementation, Monitoring and Termination	372
D.	Retaliation within the International Trading System:
	Possibilities and Limitations	373
1.	The Purpose of Sec. 301	373
2.	Assessment of Sec. 301 as a Strategic Trade Policy Tool	375
a.	The Theoretical Conditions behind a Successful Threat of Retaliation	376
b.	The Efficacy of Sec. 301	377
1)	Case Selection Under Sec. 301	377
2)	Retaliatory Mechanism Under Sec. 301	379
a)	U.S. Commitment to Negotiations and Dispute Settlement	380
b)	U.S. Retaliatory Action Against Unfair Trade Practices	381
3)	Retaliation Under Sec. 301	383
3.	Sec. 301 Under International Law	384
a.	Enforcement of U.S. Rights	384
1)	The GATT Framework	385
2)	Unilateral Enforcement of U.S. Rights Under the Multilateral Trade System	387
b.	Response to "Unreasonable" Trade Practices	390
1)	The Extension of the GATT	392
2)	The Elimination of Other Unreasonable Practices	393
a)	Trade in Services	393
b)	International Investment	395
c)	Intellectual Property	396
3)	International Implications	398
a)	The U.S. as Judge and Jury	398
b)	Defining Unreasonable Trade Practices	400
c)	Policy Implications for the Future	401
aa)	Discrimination under Sec. 301	401
bb)	World Trade Liberalization "à deux vitesses"?	404
E.	Conclusion	405

Part 4: Fair Trade Remedies

I.	Underlying Policy of Fair Trade Remedies by Jeannette Schüler and Heike Thomas	407
A.	Fair Trade	407
B.	Relation of Safeguard Measures to Voluntary Export Restraints	408
C.	Safeguards and Escape Clauses	409

II. Safeguard Measures by Heike Thomas	411
A. Increased Import Competition - Section 201 of the Trade Act of 1974	411
1. History	411
2. Procedure	413
3. Requirements of the Provision	415
a. Domestic Industry	415
b. Increased Imports	416
c. Serious Injury or Threat Thereof	417
d. Substantial Cause	418
4. Relief	419
a. Remedy Recommendation	419
b. Presidential Action	419
c. Import Relief	419
d. Congressional Veto	421
e. Modification or Termination of Relief	421
5. Judicial Control	422
6. Section 201 and the GATT	422
a. Article XIX of the GATT	422
b. Efficiency of Article XIX	425
c. Section 201 and its Compliance with GATT	426
7. Conclusion	428
B. Market Disruptions by Imports from Communist Countries - Section 406 of the Trade Act of 1974	429
1. History	429
2. Procedure	430
3. Requirements of the Provision	430
a. Communist Country	431
b. Domestic Industry	431
c. Rapidly Increasing Imports	432
d. Material Injury	433
e. Overdependence	435
f. Significant Cause	435
4. Relief	436
5. Economic Importance of the Provision	437
5. Section 406 and its Compliance with GATT	437
C. Import Restrictions to Safeguard Agricultural Commodity Programs	440
1. United States Agricultural Policy	440
2. History	441
3. Procedure	442
4. Requirements of the Provision	443
5. Section 22 and the GATT	444
a. GATT Rules for Agricultural Trade	444
b. Section 22 and its Compliance with the GATT	445

III. Escape Clause	449
by Heike Thomas
A. National Security Import Restrictions -
Section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962	449
1. History	449
2. Procedure	449
3. Requirements of Provision	451
4. Relief	452
5. Section 232 and its Compliance with GATT	453
B. Balance-of-Payments Measures - Section 122 of the Trade Act of 1974 -	456
1. History	456
2. Requirements of the Provision	456
3. Section 122 as a Legal Economic Instrument	458
a. Protective Effects of the Clause	458
b. Efficiency of Import Restrictions for Balance-of-Payments Adjustment	459
4. Section 122 and its Compliance with GATT	459
a. The Relevant Provisions of the GATT	459
b. Differences between Section 122 and the Corresponding Articles of the GATT	460
1) Authorization of Surcharges	460
2) Section 122 and the Principle of Non-Discrimination	460
5. Conclusion	462
IV. Voluntary Export Restraints	463
by Jeannette Schüller
A. Introduction	463
B. Voluntary Export Restraints in United States Trade Policy	464
1. Historical Development	464
2. Characteristics	466
3. Reasons for Negotiations of VERs	467
4. Economic Effects	468
a. Effects on the United States Economy	468
1) Costs for the Consumer	468
2) Total Welfare Costs	469
b. Influence on World Trade	469
c. Overview of Trade Affected in the 1980's	471
5. Importance of Voluntary Export Restraints in Individual Trade Sectors	472
a. Textiles	472
b. Automobiles	473
c. Steel	475
1) Orderly Marketing Agreements	475
2) Voluntary Export Restraints	475
d. Other Sectors	477
1) Overview	477

Analytical Table of Contents

2) Example of Voluntary Export Restraints in Force	477
C. Legal Aspects and Implications of Voluntary Export Restraints	478
1. Types of Arrangements and Legal Implications	478
a. Overview	478
b. Arrangements between Industries in Different Countries	479
c. Arrangements between the Government of the Importing Country and the Exporting Industry	479
d. Agreements and Arrangements between Governments	480
1) Trade Remedy	480
2) Independent Governmental Negotiations	480
3) Arrangements Reached Through Diplomatic Channels	482
2. Presidential Authority to Negotiate Voluntary Export Restraints	482
a. Trade Act of 1974	483
b. Agricultural Act of 1956	484
c. Trade and Tariff Act of 1984	484
d. Steel Import Stabilization Act	485
3. Implementation and Control	486
a. Exporting Country	486
b. United States as Importing Country	487
4. Judicial Review in the United States	489
5. Compliance of Voluntary Export Restraints with GATT	490
a. "Grey Area" Measures	490
b. Application of GATT Standards	490
1) Trade without Discrimination	490
2) Prohibition of Quantitative Restrictions	492
3) Safeguard Clause	494
c. Reasons for Non-Challenge	495
d. Conclusion	497
D. Voluntary Export Restraints as Legal Instruments of New Protectionism	497
1. Voluntary Export Restraints as Protectionist Devices	497
2. Solutions Proposed by the Tokyo and Uruguay Rounds	498
3. Other Approaches Towards Voluntary Export Restraints	498
a. Concepts for the Integration of Voluntary Export Restraints into the GATT System	498
1) Restricting the Safeguard Clause	499
2) Broadening the Safeguard Clause	499
3) Allowing Selective Safeguard Measures	499
b. Concepts for their Reduction	500
4. Transformation of Voluntary Export Restraints into Tariffs	500
5. Evaluation	501

Part 5: Indirect Restrictions on Foreign Trade

by Gillian Dell

I. Government Procurement	503
A. International Framework	503
B. System of Express Preferences and Prohibitions in Procurement	506
1. General Buy American Legislation and Regulations	507
a. Buy American Act of 1933	507
1) Statutory and Regulatory Provisions	507
2) Evaluation	509
b. The Small Business Act of 1953	509
1) Statutory and Regulatory Provisions	509
2) Evaluation	510
c. Balance of Payments Programs	511
1) Regulatory Provisions	511
2) Evaluation	511
d. Agreements and Legislation Providing for Preferential Treatment for Certain Countries	511
1) The Trade Agreements Act of 1979	511
2) Free Trade Agreements	512
a) United States-Israel Free Trade Ageement	512
b) Canada-United States Fee Trade Agreement	513
3) Evaluation	513
e. Statutory Provision for Less Favorable Treatment of Certain Countries	514
1) Trade Agreements Act of 1979	514
2) Buy American Act of 1988	514
3) Appropriations Legislation for 1988	516
4) Regulatory Prohibition for Certain Countries	516
5) Evaluation	516
2. Specific Preferences in Military Procurement	517
a. Department of Defense Authorizations and Appropriations Act Restrictions	517
1) General Provisions	517
2) Specific Statutory Provisions	518
3) Evaluation	519
b. Statutory and Regulatory Restrictions Based on National Security	520
1) Statutory and Executive Authority	521
2) Programs	521
a) Industrial Preparedness Planning Scheme	521
b) Defense Mobilization Base Restrictions	521
c) Industrial Security Regulations	522
3) Evaluation	522
c. Exemptions Under Department of Defense Bilateral Agreements	522
1) NATO Memoranda of Understanding	522
2) Foreign Military Sales-offset Arrangements	523

Analytical Table of Contents

3)	Defense Cooperation Country Agreements	524
4)	Waivers for Canadian Products	524
5)	Other	524
6)	Evaluation	524
3.	Specific Statutory Restrictions on Civilian Procurement	525
a.	Appropriations Legislation	525
1)	Statutory Provisions	525
2)	Evaluation	526
b.	AMTRAK Improvement Act of 1978	526
1)	Statutory Provision	526
2)	Evaluation	526
c.	Foreign Assistance Act of 1961	527
1)	Statutory Provision	527
2)	Evaluation	527
d.	Commodity Distribution Reform Act of 1988	527
4.	Buy American Requirements Governing State Procurement	528
a.	Federal Statutes Governing Federally-Aided State and Local Procurement	528
1)	Public Works Employment Act of 1977	528
2)	Statutes Providing for Federal Funding for Highways and Surface Transportation	528
3)	Clean Water Act of 1977	529
4)	Rural Electrification Acts	529
5)	Evaluation	529
b.	State-Imposed Buy American, Buy State and Buy Local Preferences	530
1)	New York	531
2)	Pennsylvania	531
3)	Georgia	531
4)	California	532
5)	Evaluation	533
5.	Buy American Restrictions on Private Procurement	533
C.	The System of Procurement Procedure	534
1.	Procurement Procedures Established in Federal Legislation and Regulations	537
a.	General Procurement Procedures	535
1)	Competitive and Noncompetitive Procedures	536
a)	Sealed Bidding	536
b)	Competitive Proposals	537
c)	Noncompetitive Procedures (Single Sourcing)	537
d)	Small Business Procedures	538
2)	Evaluation	538
b.	Special Statutory Exemptions for Agencies	502
2.	Specific Procedures	541
a.	Publicizing Solicitations	541
1)	Statutory and Regulatory Requirements	541

Analytical Table of Contents

a)	Presolicitation and Solicitation Notices	541
b)	Mailing Lists	543
2)	Evaluation	543
b.	Specifications, Standards and Other Purchase Descriptions	544
1)	Statutory and Regulatory Requirements	544
2)	Evaluation	545
3.	Statutes Regulations and Case Law Governing Protest and Review	546
a.	Availability of Information	547
1)	Statutes, Regulations and Case Law	547
2)	Evaluation	547
b.	Legislative, Executive and Judicial Review	548
1)	Statutes, Regulations and Case Law Governing Legislative Review	548
2)	Statutes, Regulations and Case Law Governing Executive Review	549
3)	Statutes and Case law Governing Judicial Review	550
a)	District Courts	550
b)	Claims Court	551
4)	Evaluation	552
4.	State Systems of Procurement Procedure	553
D.	Conclusion	553
II.	Subsidies	555
A.	The International Framework	557
1.	The Subject Matter: Subsidies to Domestic Industry	557
a.	Export Subsidies	559
1)	Taxes	559
2)	Export Credit Guarantee and Insurance Programs	560
3)	Export Credits	561
4)	Products or Services	561
b.	Non-Export Subsidies	562
2.	International Regulation	564
a.	Prohibited Subsidies	565
1)	Non-Primary Product Export Subsidies	565
2)	Discriminatory Consumption Subsidies	566
b.	Quantitative Limits	566
c.	Conditionally Permitted Subsidies	567
1)	Export Subsidies for Primary Products	568
2)	Export Subsidies for Certain Arms and Related Sales	569
3)	Subsidies Other Than Export Subsidies	569
d.	Remedies	570
1)	Consultations	570
2)	Countermeasures	570
a)	GATT Nullification and Impairment Procedures: Article XXIII	570
b)	Subsidies Code Procedures	571
3)	Countervailing Duties	571

Analytical Table of Contents

3. Problem Areas	571
B. Export Subsidies in the United States	576
1. Non-Primary Product Export Subsidies	576
a. Direct Grants	576
1) National Defense Authorization Act of 1989	577
2) Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988	577
3) Evaluation	577
b. Credits and Guarantees for Exporters	578
1) Export Trading Company Act of 1982	579
2) The Small Business Act of 1953 and 1988 Amendments	579
a) Statutory Authority	579
b) Programs	582
aa) Regular Business Loan and Loan Guarantee Program	582
bb) Export Revolving Line of Credit Guarantee Program	582
cc) Export-Import Bank-Small Business Administration Joint Guaranty Program	583
3) Evaluation	583
c. Direct Taxation	584
1) Tax Reform Act of 1984	587
a) Qualification as a Foreign Sales Corporation	588
b) Qualified Export Income	589
2) Evaluation	589
d. Export Credit Guarantees and Insurance	592
1) Export-Import Bank Act of 1945, as Amended, and Related Legislation	592
a) Statutory Authority	592
b) Export-Import Bank Guarantee and Insurance Programs	546
aa) Guarantees	595
bb) Insurance	595
2) Evaluation	596
e. Export Credits	598
1) Export-Import Bank Act of 1945	599
a) Statutory Authority	599
b) Programs	599
2) Complementary Foreign Programs	599
3) Evaluation	599
f. Promotional and Marketing Services	602
1) Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988	602
2) Evaluation	604
2. Export Subsidies for Primary Products	604
a. Direct Grants Regular Export Financing	606
1) Statutory Authority	606
2) Programs	609
3) Evaluation	609
b. Price and Income Support Payments	613

Analytical Table of Contents

1) The Food Security Act of 1985	614
2) Programs	614
3) Evaluation	615
c. Concessions/ Export Credits	616
1) Statutory Authority	616
2) Programs	617
3) Evaluation	617
3. Export Subsidies Not Subject to Prohibition or Regulation:
Foreign Military Sales	619
a. Cash Sales from Government Stocks and Official Credits	620
1) Arms Export Control Act, Section 21 and Related Legislation	620
a) Statutory Authority	620
b) Foreign Military Sales Program	621
2) Arms Export Control Act, Section 23	621
a) Statutory Authority	621
b) Foreign Military Sales Credit Program	622
3) Evaluation	622
C. Domestic Subsidies in the United States	623
1. Domestic Subsidies in General	623
2. High Technology	626
a. Government Financing of Commercial Enterprises, Including Grants, Loans or Guarantees	627
1) Defense Production Act of 1950 and Other Legislation	628
a) Statutory Authority	628
b) Programs	629
aa) Manufacturing Technology Program Grants	629
bb) "V-Loan" Program and Other Loan and Guarantee Programs	629
2) Small Business Act of 1953	629
3) New York State Legislation	630
a) Statutory Authority	630
b) Programs	630
4) Evaluation	631
b. Government Financing of Research and Development Programs	631
1) Patent Legislation	632
2) General Statutory Authority	633
a) Department of Defense Authorization and Appropriations Legislation	634
aa) Statutory Authority	634
bb) Programs	634
b) National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958 and Recent Amendments and Related Legislation	635
aa) Statutory Authority	635
bb) Programs	636

Analytical Table of Contents

3) Legislation Authorizing Specific Non-Targeted Programs	637
a) Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980 and Related Legislation	637
b) Small Business Innovation Development Act of 1982	639
c) Omnibus Trade And Competitiveness Act of 1988	639
4) Statutory Authority for Funding Specific Industries	640
a) The National Superconductivity and Competitiveness Act of 1988	640
b) Semiconductor Research Act of 1987	641
aa) Statutory Authority	641
bb) Programs	642
c) Steel and Aluminum Energy Conservation and Technology Competitiveness Act of 1988	643
d) New York State Legislation	643
5) Evaluation	644
c. Government Procurement	646
1) Armed Services Procurement Legislation	647
a) Statutory Authority	647
b) Regulations	648
aa) Independent Research and Development Program	649
bb) Bid and Proposal Reimbursement Program	650
cc) Industrial Modernization Equipment Program	650
dd) Contract Financing	650
2) Evaluation	650
d. Fiscal Incentives	652
1) Non-Targeted Internal Revenue Code Provisions	653
a) Research and Experimentation Tax Credit	653
b) Expensing of Research and Experimental Expenditures	654
c) Completed Contract Method of Accounting	654
2) Evaluation	654
D. Overall Evaluation of U.S. Subsidies	655
E. Conclusion	657
 Bibliographies	 659