Contents

I. ANTECEDENTS OF THE INTRODUCTION OF THE STABILIZATION PROGRAMME: THE YEARS OF CRISIS 7

II. CREATION OF INTERNAL SOURCES FOR THE PROGRAMME OF RESTRUCTURING AND ADJUSTMENT 16
   II.1. Internal financial sources: the financial reform 16
   II.2. Decontrol of interest rates 17
   II.3. Taxes as a source for increasing internal accumulation 23
   II.4. Modification of the internal price formation 25

III. EXTERNAL SOURCES OF FINANCING FOR THE PROGRAMME OF STABILIZATION AND RESTRUCTURING 26
   III.1. Exchange rate policy 26
   III.2. Tax benefits and preferential credits for export stimulation 28
   III.3. Export offensive and import competition 29
   III.4. Development of the stock of debts and of the debt service 38

IV. TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER, TECHNOLOGICAL PROGRESS, AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT 39
   IV. 1. The behaviour of productive capital and its interest in the stimulation of technological progress 39
   IV. 2. Change in attitude in the 80s 40
   IV. 3. Technology transfer-"dependent" technological development 42
   IV. 4. Research and development activity related to foreign capital investments 44
   IV. 5. Weight, role and distribution of foreign investments in the Turkish industry 48
   IV. 6. Development priorities, military industry and foreign capital 55