Contents

List of Figures .......................... viii
List of Tables ............................ ix
Preface .................................. xi

PART ONE:
INTRODUCTION

1. Introduction: Toward an Agenda for Socio-Economics
   Richard M. Coughlin
   ........................................... 3

PART TWO:
RATIONALITY, MOTIVATION, AND PREFERENCES

2. Social Dilemmas, Economic Self-Interest, and Evolutionary Theory
   Robyn M. Dawes
   ........................................... 17

3. Opportunity Shaping, Preference Shaping,
   and the Theory of Criminal Law
   Kenneth G. Dau-Schmidt
   ........................................... 41

4. Job Libido and the Culture of Unemployment:
   An Essay in Sociological Economics
   Chris de Neubourg
   ........................................... 61

5. Money Symbolism and Economic Rationality
   Robert E. Lane
   ........................................... 79

PART THREE:
MARKETS, COMPETITION, AND EFFICIENCY

6. The Socio-Economics of Labor Productivity
   Peter B. Doeringer
   ........................................... 103
7. Competing Games: Profit Maximization versus Strategic Conquest
   Lester C. Thurow
   119

8. The Ideological Romance of Privatization
   John D. Donahue
   133

9. From the Mixed Economy to the Negotiated Economy: The Scandinavian Countries
   Klaus Nielsen and Ove K. Pedersen
   145

PART FOUR:
THE MORAL DIMENSION OF THE FIRM

10. The Firm as a Moral Community
    Norman E. Bowie
    169

11. The Moral Dimension of Corporate Social Responsibility
    Max B.E. Clarkson
    185

12. The “Junk Bond King” of Wall Street: A Discourse on Business Ethics
    John Oliver Wilson
    197

13. The Effect of Ethical Climate on Managers’ Decisions
    Karen N. Gaertner
    211

PART FIVE:
SOCIOPOLITICAL CONTEXT OF ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

14. The Evolution of Governance Regimes
    John L. Campbell and Leon N. Lindberg
    227

15. Interorganizational Network Systems: A New Institution and Governance Mechanism
    Jerald Hage and Catherine Alter
    265

16. Alternative Conceptions of the Economic Realm
    Jerome M. Segal
    287
PART SIX:
SOCIO-ECONOMICS OF WORK AND THE WORKPLACE

17. Employee Ownership in the United States: Intentions, Perceptions, and Reality
   Patrick Michael Rooney
   309

18. Narcissism Project and Corporate Decay: The Case of General Motors
   Howard S. Schwartz
   335

19. An Exit-Voice Analysis of Supplier Relations
   Susan Helper
   355

PART SEVEN:
POLICY ANALYSIS

20. The Moral Dimension in Policy Analysis
   Amitai Etzioni
   375

21. The Socio-Economics of Environmental Risk: Comparing Air Quality, Acid Rain, and Global Change
   Robert W. Rycroft
   387

About the Contributors
401

Index
405
List of Figures

Figure 2.1   Results from First Set of Experiments  30
Figure 2.2   Results from Second Set of Experiments  32
Figure 9.1   A Model of a Pure Negotiated Economy  148
Figure 12.1  Basic Structure of the Contractual Model  203
Figure 13.1  Summary of Results  220
Figure 14.1  An Evolutionary View of Sectoral Development  235
Figure 14.2  The Selection of New Governance Regimes  236
Figure 19.1  Dimensions of Supplier Relations  359
Figure 19.2  Use of Computer Numerically Controlled (CNC) Machine Tools  361
List of Tables

Table 2.1 The Two-Person Prisoner Dilemma 20

Table 13.1 Means, Standard Deviations, and Reliabilities 215

Table 13.2 Zero-Order Correlations between Ethical Climate and Decision Criteria 217

Table 13.3 Regression of Purchase Decision on Climate and Decision Criteria 218

Table 13.4 Regression of Purchase Decision on Climate, Decision Criteria, and Moral Reasoning 219

Table 15.1 Typology of Resource Dependency and Network Regulation as Independent Concepts 270

Table 15.2 Relationships among Methods of Coordination and Task Integration and External Controls of Network Systems ($N = 15$) 277

Table 15.3 Relationships between Coordination and Integration Methods and the Characteristics of Tasks in Network Systems 280

Table 15.4 Regression of Methods of Coordination and Integration in Network Systems on Measures of External Control and Technology ($N = 15$) 282

Table 17.1 Intentions: Why Firms Initiated Employee Ownership 319
Table 17.2  Importance of Factors to Adopt Employee Ownership: Correlation Matrix among Factors  321

Table 17.3  Correlations between Who Initiated Employee Ownership and the Reason Employee Ownership Was Adopted  322

Table 17.4  Perceptions: Effects of Employee Ownership  323

Table 17.5  Employee Ownership: Perceptions and Intentions  324

Table 17.6  Employee Ownership: Intentions versus Reality  326

Table 17.7  Employee Ownership: Perceptions versus Reality  327

Table 21.1  Risk Characteristics of Air Quality, Acid Rain, and Global Change Issues  390–91