Contents

Contributors, ix

I INTRODUCTION

1. Introducing the oldest old, 3
   Richard M. Suzman, Kenneth G. Manton, and David P. Willis

II THE DEMOGRAPHIC PERSPECTIVE

2. A demographic portrait of America’s oldest old, 17
   Cynthia M. Taeuber and Ira Rosenwaike

3. Cohort succession and the future of the oldest old, 50
   Samuel H. Preston

4. The paradox of the oldest old in the United States:
   An international comparison, 58
   George C. Myers, Barbara Boyle Torrey, and Kevin G. Kinsella

III PROBLEMS IN STUDYING THE OLDEST OLD

5. Conceptual issues in the design and analysis of longitudinal surveys of the health and functioning of the oldest old, 89
   Kenneth G. Manton and Richard M. Suzman

6. Observations on interview surveys of the oldest old, 123
   Robert B. Wallace, Frank J. Kohout, and Patricia L. Colsher

7. Collecting data about the oldest old: Problems and procedures, 135
   Willard L. Rodgers and A. Regula Herzog

8. Mortality and life expectancy changes among the oldest old, 157
   Kenneth G. Manton

9. Causes of death among the oldest old, 183
   Evan C. Hadley
IV THE DYNAMICS OF BECOMING THE OLDEST OLD

10. Disability and mortality among the oldest old: Implications for current and future health and long-term-care service needs, 199
   Kenneth G. Manton and Beth J. Soldo

11. The oldest old and the use of institutional long-term care from an international perspective, 251
   Pamela J. Doty

12. Epidemiology of disability in the oldest old, 268

13. The impact of Alzheimer’s disease in the United States population, 283

V A SOCIAL PORTRAIT OF THE OLDEST OLD

14. The social environment of the very old, 303
   Mary Grace Kovar and Robyn I. Stone

15. The black oldest old: Health, functioning, and informal support, 321
   Rose C. Gibson and James S. Jackson

16. The robust oldest old: Optimistic perspectives for increasing healthy life expectancy, 341
   Richard M. Suzman, Tamara Harris, Evan C. Hadley, Mary Grace Kovar, and Richard Weindruch

17. Making it last: Economic resources of the oldest old, 359
   G. Lawrence Atkins

VI SOCIAL AND MEDICAL POLICY TOWARD THE OLDEST OLD

18. Sharing increasing costs on declining income: The visible dilemma of the invisible aged, 381
   Barbara Boyle Torrey

19. The oldest old and “intergenerational equity,” 394
   Robert H. Binstock

Author Index, 419
Subject Index, 429