Contents

Acknowledgments ix

1 First Impressions and Second Thoughts 1
   Plan of the Book 9

2 The Social Reproduction of Poverty 11
   Conventional and Critical Problematics 13
   Variable Environments 20
   The Culture of Poverty and Variable Environments 25

3 Potter Addition 33
   Grand Prairie 33
   The Ecological Setting of Community 34
   Surplus Populations 36
   The Material Infrastructure of Community 41
   The Material Culture of Potter Addition 45
   The Junkyards 51
   Betty's Market 52
   The Question of Class 55

4 The World of Work 59
   Disorderly Careers in Potter Addition 60
   The Jack-of-All-Trades 66
   Lower-Class Work Values 68
5 Labor, Leisure, and Ideology

Leisure Time Farming
The Car Cult
The Subjective Reproduction of Male Morale

6 Saving and Spending

Variable Environments and the Economic
Conservatism of the Poor
Variable Environments and "Nigger-Rich" Life-Styles
Mining the Interstices
Alternative Economies

7 The Uxoricentric Family

The Parsonsian Model
The Jural Default of the Husband
The Husband as Affine
Protracted Intimacies: Mothers and Daughters

8 The Antinomies of Family Life

Generational Compression
The Dialectics of Uxoricentric Family Life

9 The Dialectics of Lower-Class Kinship

The Structure of the Personal Kindred
Kinship as Ideology
Centripetal and Centrifugal Kinship Systems
Centripetal and Centrifugal Kinship in Clay County
Open and Closed Households in Potter Addition
The Merging of Households
The Iron Cage of Reciprocity

10 The Moral Foundation of Lower-Class Kinship

The Axiom of Kinship Amity
Merged and Amalgamated Identities
Affinal Struggles