Contents

Foreword vii
Acknowledgments xi
Introduction 1

Part One  The Work of "Feeding a Family"
1 Doing Family Meals 35
2 Provisioning 58
3 Constructing the Family 77

Part Two  Organization of the Work
4 Feeding as "Women's Work" 95
5 Never Done 120
6 Conflict and Deference 138

Part Three  Feeding Work and Social Class
7 Affluence and Poverty 167
8 The Significance of Style 203

Conclusion 227
Appendix: Profiles of Named Informants 245
References 247
Index 259